Subject: BEA Meeting, November 10th

The BEA met today for consideration of the FY 2015-16 and FY 2016-17 revenue estimates.

Staff Forecast and expectations include:

- Continued moderate growth through the forecast period;
- Upward pressure on wages as economy nears full employment will boost income levels
- Rate of job creation to slow during forecast period
- Federal Reserve tightening on interest rates will have minimal effect on state economic growth
- Sale tax, individual income tax and General Fund revenue forecast to grow above their long-run averages.
- Individual income tax adjusted downward by $50,000,000 for scheduled changes in withholding tables.

After discussion, the staff-recommended forecast was adopted. The work sheet is attached for your information.

For FY-2015-16, total projected non-recurring funds - $457,596,594.00

For FY-2016-17, total projected recurring funds - $841,908,908.00

Total Unobligated Funds Available in FY-2016-17 - $1,299,505,502.00

If you have questions, please let me know. I will forward to you additional information when it is received from the BEA.
