S.C. Acupuncture Advisory Committee

AGENDA TOPIC: Committee Chairman's Report

Mr. Herbkersman asked about the complaint process. Bruce Duke gave the committee an overview of the process, stating that all complaints are submitted to General Counsel for review and investigation. If further action is needed, the complaint will continue to the IRC and finally to the Committee, if necessary. Rick Wilson added that complaints are confidential in nature and should not be discussed in committee meetings.

The committee reviewed a letter from Jose Rivera-Garcia, written to Louis E. Costa, II, DMD, MD, President of the Board of Medical Examiners, dated May 3, 2006. After a brief discussion, it was decided that a letter should be sent from the Board Administrator. Mr. Herbkersman made the following motion:

Motion: Draft a letter to Mr. Rivera-Garcia requesting that he adhere to the law as it is written.

Mr. Skelton seconded the motion, which passed.

AGENDA TOPIC: Advisory Committee Nominations

Due to the fact that if Mr. Skelton recused himself from the voting process, there would not be a quorum, the selection of committee members was tabled to the next meeting.

AGENDA TOPIC: APPLICANTS FOR A PERMANENT LICENSE

There were no applicants.

Action Items for next meeting:

1. Bruce Duke will find out from OGC how many pending complaints are on file for acupuncturists and report to the committee.
