Highway Patrol Graduating Class (45 troopers will graduate in total)

- Thanks for the kind introduction, Director Smith, and thank you for your exceptional leadership at the Department of Public Safety.
- Let me first say congratulations to the 27 graduates of Basic Class 98 and the 18 graduates of Basic Class 99 here today.
- You have all completed a 21 week training program that wasn't easy for you or your family.
- I know first-hand what it is like for your spouse or sibling to leave for training, as I have watched my - husband and brother spend time away in service for our country.

- So I also want to take a moment to thank your families for the support they show you every day. It's that love and support that allows you to do the brave work that you do.
- In total, over 1172 people applied to be where you are today and there are only 45 of you who made it. That truly is an amazing accomplishment and this should be a day that you take the time to celebrate what you have achieved with your loved ones.
- This graduation symbolizes the beginning of a new chapter of your life as a member of the South Carolina Highway Patrol.
- You have proven that you are the best of the best, but with that comes added responsibility. As a member of this elite group of men and women, you will now be held to a higher standard and it's important that you represent the state and its people well.
- As your governor, I would like to thank you for the sacrifices you have already made, and for those that you will continue making as you serve and protect the people of this great state.
- I am proud to stand with you today to celebrate this great achievement, and on behalf of the entire state of SC – congratulations!
