South Carolina State Parks

at 23:22:21 on 10/25/2020 UTC · 🌐

The newest SC State Park cabin, The Turner House on St. Phillips Island, is now taking reservations. Located on a pristine barrier island only accessible by boat and once owned by Ted Turner, this beautiful 5 bedroom/5 bath house has all of the comforts of home. Be one of the first to vacation here! For more photos, pricing and rental information, visit our website:

Ruth Copeland Bo Latham From what I read it is 12,000 for 5 nights and they will still have tours for others during the day on the Island or for 20,000 they would cancel all tours and it would be private. That is very sad for those who only have so much time to tour the Island. It is going to be sad if the Island is closed for tours when we go for our 50th anniversary.

Karen Herschell I remember when state parks in America were built and maintained for ALL the people to enjoy and to use their facilities. It is disgusting that they are catering to the wealthy.

at 4:30:23 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Jeannie Benford Dobson Blair Goodman Wade

Yes, Ted Turner built it for his fsmily!
He sold the island for 1/3 of it's value
to the state of SC.

at 4:46:26 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Jamie Krug I feel like I just clicked on a "facebook click bait advertisement " when I saw that price. 😬 And who needs a 1k or 2k credit to the grocery store for 5 days?!?

at 10:30:46 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Judy John D Brooks I also don't like the fact that you have to rent for multiple days instead of one. I guess that's not conducive to cleaning and that sort of thing when you only stay one night.

at 10:32:40 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Escott Bergren Christi Gore Lerch but it was valued at like 20 mil. So its more like an investment in conservation. It was deeded to never be devolped on other than whats there.

Andrew Carter Sorry, that is NOT a cabin, that classifies as a LODGE, though a true lodge would be a LARGE CABIN made of LOGS suitable for a large party. Bunk beds would also be in there.

at 12:14:15 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Kay Baker Jacqueline Barnes on the positive side when it does "tent out" that's revenue for SC and that is a very good thing!!!
at 12:27:17 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Marjie Hausmann Erin Hassett yeaaa $20,000 to rent whole island closing it off to the public.... who and how did they decide these price tags?????
at 12:36:55 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Marcus Sizemore This thing wouldn't even fetch that much on AirBnB
at 12:45:14 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Beven Nichols Uma Kaufman the house came with the island. I think it's a great way to get some money for our parks.
at 13:20:48 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Beven Nichols Blair Goodman Wade house was there, but we bought the island with it
at 13:24:23 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Beven Nichols Way overpriced for what you get. You can get a better house with pool on Kiawah for half that.
at 13:33:33 on 10/26/2020 UTC

at 16:09:46 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Lorrie Baker Franklin Wow this is just a shame. I know it's expensive renting cabins and such but most people can't afford these prices especially during this pandemic. We absolutely love Hunting Island and have come there for years. But even the price hike just to camp at the campground has kept us from camping there. And it's a shame how they threw campsites all squished together after Matthew to get the income coming back in. I understand they wanted to get the campground up and running. They should have taken the extra time to fix the campground the way it should be. But now everyone is squished together, the flooding every time it rains loses revenue, and the price hike to camp at a state park shouldn't be that high. Now with this island and the pricing....seems like they are starting to turn into Hilton Head 😞
at 16:32:43 on 10/26/2020 UTC

Tiffany Graves Phillip Harpootlian, I would totally camp in something like this! Reminds me of what we used to sleep in at Girl Scout Camp.

at 10:18:22 on 10/27/2020 UTC

Bruce Baude Pretty cool that Ted Turner gave this to SC Parks. I'm sure that came with conditions. Just guessing, but maintaining an inhabited island comes with huge costs. I may never be able to stay there, but am happy the Parks received this wonderful asset.

at 11:49:21 on 10/27/2020 UTC

Barbara Eleazer Suzannah Siebert Eleazer -we spent the day on St Phillips Island this summer. We walked all around the outside of the house so I'm pretending we stayed there.
