In just over three weeks – on July 21, 2016 – the man in this video will be confirmed as the leader of the Republican Party in the United States of America. He will represent tens of millions of people whose principles of humanity and integrity have historically been held dear – and who, for the most part, have historically subscribed to Judeo-Christian values and similar values and mores.

In December, I served as St. Nicholas for 45 beautiful children with special needs. I can't imagine wanting to have anything to do with a person who would mock them. Far beyond despicable. I have no idea what to say to those who endorse and support this man, except to say, "I'm not with you.... I'm out. May God have mercy on us if this man becomes President of the United States of America."
