Are you making the most of your Agency's time and money?

Research shows only 2.5% of global construction projects are delivered on time and within budget. A recent study by Arizona State University examined the value that Job Order Contracting (JOC) brings to these projects.

99% of facility owners surveyed recommend Job Order Contracting over traditional procurement methods because:

- 91% of JOC projects are delivered within budget
- JOC saves an average of 24% in administrative costs
- 87% of JOC projects are delivered on time
