Subject: Small Business Saturday is November 24 – Are You Ready?

It's Time to Shop Small®

Small Business Saturday® is right around the corner. Together with American Express the U.S. Chamber of Commerce invites you to get involved on November 24. We've received a record turn-out for small businesses applying to become a Neighborhood Champion, so this year's celebration is already looking to be incredible!

If you didn't get a chance to sign up to be a Neighborhood Champion this year, you can still get involved! Here are some other great ways you can celebrate Small Business Saturday®:

- Check out the Shop Small® Studio for marketing assets to help promote your business or refer your members
- Host your own events by utilizing the American Express Small Business Saturday® event guides
- Find Neighborhood Champions in your area to partner up with and plan an event together
- Get out and Shop Small® and then share your experience on social media using #ShopSmall and #SmallBizSat

Thank you for getting involved in your community to support your favorite small businesses and the Shop Small® movement! We're excited to see how you chose to celebrate the day.
