Dear ADSSP and ADI-SSS Grantees and Collaborative Partners,

Some of you may be interested in attending the 2017 Aging in America Conference, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois from March 20-24, 2017. Attached please find a listing of sessions related to Alzheimer's disease and dementia that may be of interest to you. The attachment also includes a discount code for conference fees.

Please also note, a number of these dementia related sessions are being planned by the National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center team and others involved in ADSSP and ADI-SSS grants. In particular, the first session listed on the attachment—Improving Care and Services for People with Dementia and Family Caregivers—is being organized by the Administration for Community Living and the Resource Center.

Thank you,

National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center
