ON THE MOVE IN THE MIDLANDS

USC budget to address strategic needs, state pay package

The University of South Carolina Board of Trustees approved the $1.5 billion budget for the state's flagship university system that covers FY17 operations at USC's eight campuses and Palmetto College online. With 50,000 students enrolled throughout the system preparing to enter the workforce as highly employable graduates and a $4.1 billion annual economic impact on the state, USC is one of the key drivers of South Carolina's economic and overall well-being. ### What You Need to Know About Britain's Vote to Exit the

EU

By Kate Warne, Ph.D., CFA: Britain voted on June 23 to leave the European Union (EU). In response, stocks dropped, bond prices rose (lowering interest rates further), and the value of the British pound fell sharply. Markets hate surprises and uncertainty, and this vote provided both. However, keep in mind, the impact of Britain's vote isn't likely to be as big as the market reaction. See More
