Subject: resolving all conflict

Jim,

As you can see below, I have chosen to step down as Marketing Director of MBBC.

While I am not aware of any personal unresolved conflict between you and me, please know that this is an invitation to meet and discuss any such when you return on June 26th.

The only obligation that remains for me now is to keep my word to the Myrtle Beach Black Chamber as it relates to making peace with any and all who have stated they have issues with me personally.

I only ask, that should you choose not to meet with me, that you also not participate in any ongoing whisper campaigns concerning my reputation.

Should you not wish to meet, because you have come to believe that it is WHO I am versus what I have done that is the core issue for you, I would ask that you give me the benefit of the doubt here as we do not know one another personally in any way.

Should you feel that this lawsuit MBACC has against my business' private trademark is a reason not to meet, then please know this: Matthew 5:40 If you are sued in court and your shirt is taken from you, give your coat, too.

My coat is yours.

Sincerely,

To all emailed here:

After a long and detailed meeting with Wardell Brantley this afternoon, I have decided to turn in my resignation as the marketing director for the Myrtle Beach Black Chamber of Commerce.

While this has been and was to be an unpaid position, it was an investment that I wholeheartedly wanted to participate in.

While Wardell did not ask for my resignation and even encouraged me to continue, I would never want it to be said that my volunteer participation in an organization precluded that organization's success.

As to those below who made such comments, I have already today and will continue this week to reach out to each one of you this week to resolve any conflicts that exists between you and me.

I am confident that Myrtle Beach will forever forward be represented by MBBC. I look forward to the outstanding work this organization does in growing minority tourism.

Sincerely,

David Hucks

Subject: Catching up MBBC

Dear Team,

Much has happened today in response to my Saturday emails to hotel owners.

This week I meet with:

8/23 Chris Shroff who owns 6 top end hotels
Thursday Matthew Brittain who owns 20 area hotels and is instrumental in this community.
Billy Huggins, GM WPDE, we talk tonight.
Brad Dean, July 7th.

Most have made me aware that they are highly interested in speaking about
