Dear Governor Haley,

I have been disabled since 1998. I have been denied disability several times, I can no longer work. I was layed off because of my injunes and have never since been able to work. I just feel it's injustice that I paid all those years on SS/disability and I can't get help. I have many health problems and can't afford the medication because I can't even get government help nor can I afford private insurance. I've been told by lawyers the only way I can recieve benefits is to divorce my husband I've been married to for thirty years. I just don't see the fairness when all these other people that can work get help. All I'm asking for is what I'm entitled to.

Sincerely,

Barbara Stephens
