New Resource: Multi-Payer Payment Reform Toolkit

It is an exciting time for multi-payer payment reform, as states move to support new care delivery models facilitated by payment approaches that encourage coordinated and integrated health delivery systems. This toolkit captures ideas and expertise from leading states and national experts to help equip others with the knowledge and tools needed to advance multi-payer payment and delivery system reform. The toolkit is organized by topic and includes a variety of resources including NASHP webinar recordings and slides, State Reform blog posts and discussion threads, and links to relevant resources.

Check out the toolkit to help your state and partners tackle critical issues in implementing multi-payer payment reforms!

National Academy for State Health Policy

The National Academy for State Health Policy (NASHP) is an independent academy of state health policymakers who are dedicated to helping states achieve excellence in health policy and practice. A non-profit and non-partisan organization, NASHP provides a forum for constructive work across branches and agencies of state government on critical health policy issues.
