

MAY QUEEN CHECKS TRAIN

The train looks pretty and is ready for May Day. Pretty also is the queen, Carolyn Branham, who is giving the last-minute inspection to the train she will wear Saturday when she is crowned Columbia's 1960 Queen of the May. Assisting is her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Branham. (Record photo by Jerry Finley)

City's May Day To Be Saturday

Carolyn Branham will be crowned 1960 Queen of the May here Saturday by Mayor Lester L. Bates.

The annual May Day activities are to get underway at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Valley Park. May pole dances and skits under the theme of "Friends From Story Book Land" will be presented for the queen's entertainment.

Miss Branham, the daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Branham, is a Columbia High School student.

William B. Moore, director of City Parks and Recreation Department which sponsors the event, will give the welcome. Mrs. Ruth Gottlieb will act as mistress of ceremonies during the entertainment portion of the program.

Miss Emmie Sue Deaver will attend the queen as maid of honor. The queen's trainbearers will be Keith Gibson, Skipper Anderson and Ronald Capps.

Among the skits will be "Sleeping Beauty," "Little Red Riding Hood," "Snow White and Rose Red," "Three Bears," "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "The Three Little Pigs," "Beauty and the Beast," "Peter Rabbit," "Cinderella," "Hansel and Gretel."
