Another great stop for fall color is Paris Mountain State Park located about 15 minutes from downtown Greenville. Paris Mountain has lots of hiking trails and a beautiful view of the fall colors from Lake Placid. You can also bring a picnic and enjoy the scenery. Paula Woody Paris Mountain ROCKS! But I must say I enjoy the upper trails the most ... on the way to the Fire Tower ruins.

Marilyn Jones Armstrong My grandparents drove me up Paris Mountain when I was a kid, my first mountain. A Lowcountry girl, I thought it was huge!
