

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the production and consumption of energy affects the lives of all South Carolinians and our state's natural resources every day; and
- WHEREAS, the practice of energy efficiency and energy conservation can help lower business operating costs and personal expenses; and
- WHEREAS, South Carolina has already instituted programs that encourage energy efficiency within state government; and
- WHEREAS, energy efficiency and renewable energy development can offer employment and economic opportunities while reducing dependence on foreign energy sources and contributing to a sustainable South Carolina; and
- WHEREAS, the month of October is recognized as Energy Awareness Month throughout the United States.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2013 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to learn about ways to reduce energy consumption and enhance energy efficiency efforts in their homes, schools, and workplaces.

ENERGY AWARENESS MONTH
