Taking time off for Amelia

Almost a year after he wrote to us, Dan and his wife, Laura, have a baby girl, Amelia. Dan was only able to take two weeks off when Amelia was born, and Laura had to go back to work after she exhausted her 6 weeks of paid leave so that they could pay their bills. See why we need to 'Lead On Leave' to help more families like Dan and Laura's to succeed.

DOL Working For You

Adding up to success

A successful career was never a given for accounting professor Delvin Seawright, who came from humble beginnings. Unable to afford college after high school, he turned to Job Corps. There he gained the skills he needed to support himself while pursuing what he loved: math.
