We got to five of the Democratic senators on Judiciary with our message. Malloy, McElveen, Allen, and Kimpson were approached by constituents they know and recognize as very politically active in their districts. We don't have a local League in Hutto's district, but a League member who is his mother's first cousin and oldest friend got a very strong, but affectionate, message to him, urging not just approval for this amendment but overall support of real reform. The responses so far have been somewhat evasive, we 'll see.
