Description/Significant Features:

The single-story Traditional frame residence rests on a concrete block foundation and is clad in replacement synthetic siding. The building is topped by a side-gabled roof which attaches to an attached (and later enclosed) shed roof porch at the rear. A hipped roof porch has been enclosed on the building's facade in order to create additional interior space. All of the building's windows and doors are replacement.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

enclosure of front porch to create indoor space replacement of windows, doors, and exterior cladding
