Katherine,

It's taken me a few weeks to write but wanted to send a hello.

It was great to meet yourself and Governor Haley inside the Nissan Heisman House at the FSU v Clemson football game (nissanheismanhouse.com)

I mentioned to her that my mother is an elected official in North Carolina – NC State Legislature, so I understand how busy you and her are with what you do.

You taking time out of your weekend to usher her around is commendable – and her the same in spending time away from family to visit with the community.

At the end of the day it's a service you two are doing for your neighbors and your state – and that's appreciated by many – so from Tennessee I say thank you!

I keep tabs on Charleston...one day I will live in Mount Pleasant.....the best city on earth (if only there were more industry in media/advertising there)

Until then, if there's ever anything you need in and around Nashville, TN – let me know.

Happy Holidays,

Johnathan Fisher
