Hi Chaney,

Following up to see if you have any guidance on the Governor's public schedule in Columbia this week, post SOTU.

Rob, I'll give you a ring to touch base on contacts a bit later today!

Cheers,

Thanks Rob. Chaney -- if you have any guidance yet on when Gov Haley is going to be holding any press availabilities next week in Columbia, that would be helpful for my planning.

And Rob, we can touch base over the next day or two on folks I might reach out to who've worked with the governor or know her through other walks of life. One of the things I'd like to try and do while I'm in the state is get to Bamberg to see what it's like where she grew up.

Will be in touch!

Emily,

Always good to hear from you.

Copying my colleague Chaney Adams on this email. Let us know of any way we can be helpful.

Hi Rob,

We used to be in touch back when I was a political reporter for Roll Call. I'm now Newsweek's political correspondent in DC and wanted to reach out about doing a piece on the Governor -- looking at her tenure so far as governor, going into her final few years in the job; what lies ahead for her in SC and beyond; and the veep speculation (I actually had this idea before the news about her SOTU response, but that doesn't hurt!).

I'm coming to South Carolina next week to cover the Republican debate in Charleston and do some 2016 reporting on the primary races, as well as for this piece. Would it be possible set up an interview with the Governor while I'm in town -- Jan 14 or 15?

Let me know, happy to discuss further by phone.

Best,

Emily Cadei / Political Correspondent
