Royal Caribbean is known for its innovative vessels and creative onboard amenities, and this year it launches two brand-new blockbuster ships.

The Ovation of the Seas debuts this month and promises plenty of thrills, like a simulated skydiving experience, bumper cars at the SeaPlex and the North Star, a glass-enclosed capsule at the end of a mechanical arm that lifts occupants more than 300 feet above the sea.

The Harmony of the Seas hits the waves in May. Passengers can take on the challenges of the FlowRider surf simulators, 43-foot-high rock-climbing walls and a zipline that's nine decks up in the air. Royal Caribbean introduces a new kids park called Splashaway Bay on this ship, as well as a trio of spiraling waterslides dubbed The Perfect Storm.

Both will feature Voom, Royal Caribbean's ultra-fast Internet connectivity. Passengers can stream movies and music, Skype, Tweet and keep up with their email, Facebook and Instagram accounts. It's offered on the Quantum- and Oasis-class ships and is expected to be available on the line's ships that sail in the Caribbean by mid-2016.

Royal Caribbean is offering Vacations To Go customers huge discounts -- save up to 82% -- as well as exclusive shipboard credits of up to $100 per cabin plus free gratuities on oceanview cabins and higher for the first and second guests in the cabin on nearly all sailings (excluding Alaska, Asia, trans-Atlantic and repositioning cruises). Book by April 13. See dates and prices.

Globus is one of the world's leading escorted tour operators, and its experts help travelers truly immerse themselves in each destination. Itineraries have just the right balance of free time and included features -- like Local Favorites (special experiences that help you see the destination like a local) and VIP access at must-see sites. The company's Tour Directors and Local Guides provide in-depth knowledge of their cities, towns and neighborhoods.

Recently, the company's Tour Directors were asked what their guests were most surprised by when taking a Globus tour. Among the responses: Travelers said they saw twice as much as they would over traveling on their own. The tours were well-organized, a great value and truly stress-free, because a Globus expert handled the luggage, arranged meals and sightseeing and took care of the transportation.

And finally, guests reported that they had more free time than they expected. Said one Globus tour director, "Although there is certainly a great deal of value in traveling with a group, as well as the benefit of meeting new friends, I always like to help our guests make the best use of the free time that they have. The fact that there is so much free time is often quite surprising for those who are traveling with us for the first time."

The ships of Celebrity Cruises sport contemporary designs, Canyon Ranch SpaClubs and creative cuisine. The fleet ranges from the 98-passenger Celebrity Xpedition, which explores the wildlife-rich Galapagos Islands, to the five Solstice-class ships (Solstice, Equinox, Eclipse, Silhouette and Reflection) that accommodate more than 2,800 guests and cruise popular regions like the Caribbean and Alaska.

While sailing with Celebrity, you can show off your cooking skills in a Top Chef at Sea Quickfire Challenge, take a mixology class, learn how to dance the salsa or join a yoga class. Spa lovers can book AquaClass cabins, available on all Celebrity ships except the Xpedition. They offer unlimited access to the spa's Persian Garden, a relaxing oasis of saunas, steam rooms, heated tiled loungers and scented showers.

Celebrity has an exclusive offer on 2016 Europe voyages for our customers: Save up to 81% and get shipboard credits of up to $275 per cabin. Plus, book an ocean-view cabin or higher on sailings in June and beyond and choose two of the following perks: 1) an additional shipboard credit of up to $300 per cabin, 2) free gratuities, 3) a free Classic Beverage Package that includes alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages or 4) unlimited Internet. Right now, our customers can save \$2,000 per couple ($1,000 per person) off departures of Magnificent Europe when you book by April 30. Last month, AmaWaterways debuted a new ship, the 158-passenger AmaStella. It was designed with multigenerational travelers in mind. Staterooms include six sets of adjoining cabins connected via an internal doorway (these accommodate families of up to five) and four suites with convertible sofa beds (for up to four). Twelve staterooms fit up to three family members each.

Guests will find multiple dining venues (all of which are complimentary) -- including an intimate Chef's Table restaurant -- as well as a heated pool with a swim-up bar and bicycles for exploring ashore.

A sister ship to the AmaStella, the AmaViola, launches this month.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is building its most luxurious cruise ship to date, the 750-passenger Seven Seas Explorer. It sets sail this July on a series of Mediterranean voyages. Aboard the all-suite ship, guests can expect king-size beds, large bathrooms and spacious verandas -- said to be the largest balconies in the industry. Among accommodations is the 3,875-square-foot, two-bedroom Regent Suite with its own private spa retreat.

The six-star line kicked off a two-year, $125 million renovation of its existing fleet this spring, beginning with the Seven Seas Navigator. It's scheduled to sail this week with refurbished public spaces and several redesigned suite categories.

Regent has won many fans with its impeccable service, fantastic gourmet cuisine and engaging enrichment programs. Fares include unlimited shore excursions, gratuities and unlimited beverages including fine wines and premium spirits and, on select sailings, unlimited Internet (valued at $30 a day).

Regent is offering our customers savings of up to 85% and exclusive shipboard credits of up to $1,100 per cabin on nearly all upcoming voyages. Book by April 17. See dates and prices.

"Destination Immersion" is the philosophy of Azamara Club Cruises, which operates two boutique-style ships that carry 686 guests each: the Azamara Journey and Azamara Quest. The line's itineraries offer longer stays in port and more overnights in cities such as Barcelona, Stockholm, Bangkok and Hanoi. In the Caribbean, its vessels sail to alluring islands like St. Barts, Nevis and Virgin Gorda.

Guests receive one complimentary evening shore excursion on every sailing (except trans-Atlantic crossings and trips of less than seven nights). You might attend a concert by the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra in Australia, be treated to an evening of hospitality at a 17th-century Scottish estate or unwind at a private beach party in Cozumel.

Your Azamara fare also includes spirits, wines and beers in the ship's bars, lounges and restaurants, as well as gratuities, bottled water, soft drinks, teas and specialty coffees.

The Azamara Journey recently completed a makeover, and the Azamara Quest is being similarly refurbished this month. The project includes stem-to-stern upgrades, including new spa suites that boast showers with ocean views and outdoor Jacuzzi tubs.

Azamara is offering our customers fantastic savings of up to 84% as well as exclusive shipboard credits of up to $1,000 per cabin on nearly all deployed sailings. Book by April 22. See dates and prices.

Vacations To Go customers can enjoy special summer savings on Mississippi River cruises with American Queen Steamboat Company. Its 432-passenger American Queen, a modern-day paddle wheeler, sails a variety of themed itineraries.

Life on the Mississippi tells the stories of fur traders, pioneers and Mark Twain, who once worked as a riverboat pilot. Presidents & Politics features famed political satirist and comedian Mark Russell and renowned Abraham Lincoln impersonator George Buss.

Every cruise includes complimentary wine and beer at dinner and bottled water, soft drinks and specialty coffees throughout the voyage. Included "hop-on, hop-off tours" allow guests to discover each destination at their own pace.

American Queen Steamboat Company also offers cruises of the Columbia River in Washington and Oregon, aboard the 237-guest American Empress. To see all of the company's departures and every available discount for our customers, click here.

Explore Alaska beyond its coastal attractions on a Holland America Line cruise tour this summer. These trips package a sailing through the Inside Passage and along the Gulf of Alaska with a multiday exploration of some of the state's most popular inland sights, like Denali National Park and Preserve.

The tour portion includes your hotel accommodations, transportation to the tour destinations via motor coach or domed railcar and some sightseeing. Cruise tours last nine to 19 nights and depart from Vancouver, Seattle, Anchorage and Fairbanks.

Holland America has reduced rates by up to 76% for Vacations To Go customers. In addition, enjoy exclusive shipboard credits of up to $500 per cabin, free gratuities for two and a $100 per cabin beverage credit on a variety of 2016 Alaska cruise tours. The Gold Nugget Saloon will host a dinner theater show and then turn into a bar and music venue later in the evening.

Guests also can go kayaking or paddleboarding from the Paul Gauguin's water-sports platform, which serves as the launching point for scuba adventures, too. The ship is the only luxury vessel in French Polynesia to have an onboard PADI certification program for beginners.
