I have endometriosis and it took 20 years to diagnosis me. And since being diagnosed in 2011 I have had three surgeries, including a hysterectomy and still I am in pain. This disease has consumed my life . I am in constant pain and the doctors have no options to give me anymore. This is a debilitating and dangerous disease and it needs to be recognized!!!

Of my mum and my dear friend lisa and all others with this terrible illness. They deserve as much support as any other illness out there.
