I didn't get comments from anyone, so here it is on letterhead now. I changed one word I decided I didn't like, and Josh fact-checked for me...I had to make one other small change, based upon that.

So at this point, I'd say we're circulating this one for final review and comment now. It would be good to get this one wrapped up this morning, if possible.

Josh and I have gone back and forth through the night on the budget veto and we have a draft that's about 2/3 along.

Subject: Veto Message - Capital Reserve Fund

Here's the draft veto message for the Capital Reserve Fund. Just so we don't get buried in email tonight, if folks have edits or suggestions, please send them just to me, and I'll compile them. You should also feel free to say, "It's perfect! Don't change a thing!" Actually, that can go to the whole group. :) Thanks.
