Katie,

Do you want me to produce language for the cover of the board application? Like a cover letter but explains the nomination process? Once this goes online anyone can fill it out, so I think we would want a paragraph addressing the process and how they will hear back.

Second, I didn't put the info for the crim/credit check separately. Since we are doing these with SLED we are not using a third party and can send the info how we choose. But for credit checks how do we do this? Didn't know if we should have a separate paper required by them (cut down our work) that we should have filled out.

Thoughts? Otherwise I cleaned up the application one more time, checked the old application to make sure we covered everything, and researched qualifications. I have confirmed voter registration and residency, and some tangential items. Rebecca is looking further at the Governor's power - she is doing this research for our Magistrates issue on appointments. So far we have that the governor's power is unfettered, but I would still make sure its reasonably tailored which I considered She is finishing that line of cases.

I am going to look at expungement tomorrow. The constitution says we cannot consider convictions that are removed or something to that effect. I need to look further and see if there is a case on expungements and whether we can ask.

That should be it and the app is done.

Richele
