Hi Hal,

Elaina here with Roll Call.

The reason I'm reaching out is because we have available an opportunity for Governor's Office to bring its message to over 30,000 advocates and influencers at this year's Democratic and Republican National Conventions, for less investment than you think.

Worried that participation in the political conventions is an endorsement of some kind? Partnering with Roll Call is an opportunity to focus on policy, so you can steer clear of the politics. There is little to criticize if you are participating in legitimate, non-partisan discussions of the issues.

Companies like Amazon and Procter & Gamble are partnering with Roll Call for their convention presence because we've secured top-rate talent at premier locations for each of their events - allowing them to address both grassroots as well as grass tops targets.

We can do the same for you, but time is running out with less than 60 days until the Conventions!

I'd like to show you how we can help you take your advocacy efforts to the next level at this year's conventions.

How about 15 mins next Tuesday?

Cheers,

Elaina
