Roads, Bridges, and North Augusta Jobs Announcement -- Update from Sen. Tom Young – April 22 to 28, 2014

One of my goals as your state senator is that you find this update helpful and informative. Your feedback is meaningful and appreciated. If I can help you with an issue, please let me know. Thank you for reading and for allowing me to serve our District!

North Augusta -- Big Announcement! : Last Thursday, Medac, an anesthesiology billing company, announced that it will consolidate its operations to North Augusta from three locations outside of South Carolina. This announcement brings over 400 existing jobs and the potential for approximately 200 more jobs. Medac will be the largest private employer within the City of North Augusta. To learn more, go here. To apply for a job, go to www.careerbuilder.com and use the keyword search "Medac."

Savannah River National Lab : Last Wednesday, I participated in events surrounding the National Lab at SRS for its 10 year anniversary as a national lab. We are fortunate to have a national lab in our community and state. Our legislative delegation is working with state officials to utilize the lab's assets for private entrepreneurship and economic development.

Roads and Bridges

SCDOT Presentation: SCDOT provided its report on the "State of the SCDOT" to the Senate Transportation Committee last month. The SCDOT maintains 41,414 miles of roads -- the 4th largest state maintained system in the nation. The Department estimates that 10% of the interstate system is in poor condition but nearly half of the primary and secondary system is in poor condition. To see the full report, go here.

Roads and Bridges – Funding Issue: In December 2012, a state task force released this report projecting that the state needs about $1.5 Billion more per year for the next 20 years to meet anticipated infrastructure needs. My understanding is that amount means that the state needs to find $600 Million more per year in state revenues for the next 20 years to fund SCDOT.

Roads and Bridges -- Last Year's Budget Appropriations : Last year, the General Assembly was able to put together a combination of one time and recurring money to pay for $600 Million of interstate and bridge improvements around the state. The interstate improvements will be done over the next few years. While this was a good start, much more is needed.

Roads and Bridges – Funding Solutions?: The 2012 report referenced above suggests a number of ways to address the problem. Ideas include (1) dedicating all money from the automobile vehicle sales tax to roads (about $103 Million per year); (2) dedicating all new general fund dollars collected over projections each year after the House budget is done; (3) dedicating 20% of new general fund revenue each year going forward; (4) dedicating some capital reserve funds; (5) passing a bond bill for one time infrastructure needs; (6) raising the gas tax and tying any future increases to increases in the consumer price index; and/or (7) dedicating all sales taxes collected on internet purchases in the state if and when Congress lifts the exemption on online businesses to collect (estimated at more than $300 Million per year). Governor Haley said in her January State of the State Address that she will veto any increase in the state gas tax (set at 16.875 cents per gallon since 1987).

Roads and Bridges -- Perspective: South Carolina must address the impending crisis in our road and bridge infrastructure. Strengthening South Carolina's infrastructure will benefit our state for the long term and provide us with a competitive advantage over other states in our effort to keep existing businesses and to attract new and expanding businesses. The continued growth in Medicaid funding requirements – over $400 Million in last year's budget even without accepting the federal expansion -- will present challenges as policy makers consider how to pay for Medicaid growth and still meet other needs in our state including those of public education and road and bridge infrastructure. The DOT report referenced above describes the situation and offers possible solutions for consideration by the Governor, the General Assembly, and the public. We need strong leadership on this issue. I will continue to work with other elected officials and private sector leaders to find a solution going forward. Your input is appreciated and valued. Please email me back or contact me by phone or in person with your thoughts and ideas on this issue.

Local Road and Bridge Project Update : In case you missed it, last week I provided an update on several local road and bridge projects. To see that information, go here.

Hitchcock Parkway/Bypass -- Aiken: The Aiken City Council will have significant input and decisionmaking on this project and its scope as the project moves forward. Certificate of Need: Two weeks ago, the State Supreme Court upheld the certificate of need law that gives the state authority to approve plans of hospitals and nursing homes to add beds or build new additions. Last year, Governor Haley vetoed the appropriation for the program and the House of Representatives sustained the veto. The Department of Health and Environmental Control has appealed the decision.
