I understand. I was just really hoping to reinstate the one we canceled at the last minute. We had it reserved for quite some time before canceling my husband and I had a reservation for Edisto State Park next week but we canceled at the last minute due to the Coronavirus thinking it was going to be closed. we REALLY would love to go if at all possible. is there any way to reinstate our reservation? I tried calling but cannot get thru.

thanks!

I'm sorry, I do not think this is possible. New reservations are accepted for stays May 11 forward.

For those who are camping, are the bath houses open for campers? Are they going to be cleaned regularly?
