Senator Bright,

I have spoken to Ms. Donna Willingham yesterday/today, and have given her my cell phone number, instructing her to call me with updates this afternoon/evening.

Per my conversation with Ms. Willingham, her daughter's hearing with the Probate Judge is tomorrow morning at 11:00am. She apparently has been appointed counsel via Probate, but has not had any contact with the attorney, and was unable to provide a name.

Ms. Willingham has also sought out legal aid if issues arise with the appointed attorney.

I encouraged her, since she has not already done so, to contact both her appointed attorney and the legal aid to further discuss the situation and hearing with them.

She informed me that the legal aid is supposed to be in contact with her today, but has yet been-I instructed her to contact me when this happens.

I would be happy to give you updates as needed, and please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Best regards,

I've called her twice today and have spoken to her once. Waiting on her to return my second call.

Thanks,

Best regards,

Hal Peters
