Please thank the Governor for leading the effort to remove the confederate flag. I am not a resident of your beautiful state, nor am I an African American. However, I believe it is important to end the racial unrest that exists in our country today. Displaying a flag (or any other symbol) that represents a history of racial division is no longer acceptable. We should not be celebrating a history of racial discrimination nor honoring our forefathers for their beliefs if those beliefs led to civil war. We should not be ignoring any action (or inaction) that leads to racial tension in our nation. It is time to acknowledge how wrong we have been to allow symbols of oppression to exist for so long. Taking down the flag is a good first step. Many more steps are needed.

Honorable Governor,

I want to express my dismay at the attempted removal of the Confederate Battle flag. I wonder what will be next? The agreement reached in 2000 was for an "African" American monument to be built and the flag to be moved to the monument. Well as usual politicians are backstabbing L****. Needless to say My whole family voted for you (I come from a large family). If you should decide to run for office in future you will NOT get our votes. Should I be offended by the US flag, no, but my great grandmother was raped by a "troop" of union soldiers, while her children hid in the high weeds. I have moved on, people supposedly forgive but most always bring it up again. This flag is a battle flag, used in battle by soldiers. I know this is not your heritage so it doesn't matter to you but it is MY heritage and it matters greatly. One of my grandfathers was shot in the hip and finished the war in a hospital. Do you know he received a pension from the US military? He was a member of The CO H 16th South Carolina Rifles,CSA. One thing about the future of South Carolinians is they will not know their history , because it is being written by the victors. Thank You

Good Day Governor Haley - I watched your announcement live today as you detailed the rationale for removing the Confederate flag from the state capitol building. THANK YOU. I commend you both for the timing and your thoughtful language today. I appreciate you taking the 'high road' when characterising the motivation of some to fly the flag. I am a 65 year old white male and I lived in SC (and elsewhere) when segregation was still legal. As you no doubt know, there is primarily a single motivation for white folks to display the flag and it is bigotry (or racism). As you noted, the Civil War ended 150 years ago - it is time to move on. There has been much pain in SC in recent time. I believe your words and actions have been instrumental in keeping the peace and allowing citizens to absorb, contemplate and heal. God bless you. PS - I no longer live in SC but I did use an address that was mine for many years to complete this email. My apologies.

I am writing in support of the Confederate flag remaining as a memorial on the State House grounds in South Carolina. While some will use the flag as a supremacist symbol, I don't think the majority of South Carolinians view it that way, as do I. The black community and black leadership has become defacto black supremacists, out for personal gain and some reason to get in the media. After all, if there were no racial issues there would be no need for the NAACP. They have abandoned Dr. Kings efforts for equality to instead seek to flex muscle in the name of race. They no longer care about equality or justice. The Confederate flag is just one of these many instances. Society is being used as pawns for greed and power rather than equality and justice. South Carolina should stand for equality and justice for ALL! .. not just those with their own agenda. White Americans have rights too!

Governor Halley, please do not take away any more of our American history.

Leave all of it alone, even if considered bad. History shows us from where we have come to where we are now. Without our history, we can't measure how much better is life for all people in America.

If we start taking away everything that offends each individual, there is nothing left to teach children of the future. Looking at the past sometimes shows children of the future, how we got to where we are today.

This is total insanity if you start taking away everything that offends someone. All our rights are already at the stake to be burned for someone's choosing.

Which is more important to you? Our history which is a pattern for us to maybe not follow in the future or to show us how to be better citizens.

The Confederate flag has so long been mis-defined. It has become separate individuals opinion instead of based on facts.

We cannot lead our country based on our individual opinions.

Slavery first started in this country by the blacks who came here & sold their own black people for slaves. Yet, the white people have endured the blame from that time to now. WHY???

The reason is because people had rather support their opinion rather than support facts.

I wish politicians would stop appeasing people just to stay in office or get votes. Very hypocritical to say the least, when politicians consistently say they do what they do for the best interest of the American people. Really, most are too smart to fall for that hypocrisy.

Politicians can no longer fool educated people.

Please reconsider abolishing the Confederate Flag. Instead, teach people what is the real meaning of the Confederate Flag.

As a native of South Carolina, I was educated to know that the Confederate Flag is not about racism. It is only associated with racism, because of ignorant racist that have used it. Hate comes from the heart of a person and not a flag. I am not proud of everything that has occurred in my state's history, but I am proud of the men that fought and died for South Carolina in the war between the states.

I do not support the removal of the Confederate Flag from the State House grounds and I will not support any politician now or in the future that supports removing it.

Born and Raised in SC,

Todd [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley, I applaud your stance in the removal of the Confederate flag from the SC Statehouse. Thank you for standing up to racism. Thank you for putting people first and not history or the belief that that flag stands for a way of life in the South.

Your actions help unite this country in a way that it so desperately needs. We are one people, one United States and the removal of the Confederate flag signals that.

Dear Gov, can't believe you turned into a true POLITICAL hack with the flag issue. The revisionists and the public school system have dumbed a number of generations down and its pathetic. Abraham Lincoln was a manic depressant and failed tab every business venture he ever attempted. Elected president success i guess all we have to do is look at the present ceo horrendous behavior. The south was becoming and industrial and agricultural power and wanted to succeed from the union,Licoln a true federal power monger didn't want that so he made a war about slavery and slaughtered 683000 americans. The flag represents freedom from the fed and states rights come first not fed rights. Lincoln was a disaster and the blood he spilled proves that. He is the reason the posse committatus act was passed. he was the mental case that used military troops to incarcerate senators and congressmen and citizens till they voted the way he wanted. He and his wife were mentally disturbed. The confederate flag represents states rights and freedom from the fed and it amazes me how many ignorant leaders and politicians and citizens there are. Now if I had a knoose hanging fem my house or a white hood that is hatred and evil. Stop the perversion of history thought you were better than this.

We have been planning to retire to South Carolina, specifically to a community on Lake Wylie, across from Charlotte. The present situation with the confederate flag is causing us to rethink our decision. It is embarrassing to us (Republicans from New Jersey) to say that we are moving to a state whose government still flies the predominant national symbol of slavery. I understand that many in South Carolina state that they view the flag differently, but to our acquaintances and almost universally outside of South Carolina its meaning is unambiguously offensive.

Please support the effort to remove the confederate flag from all of South Carolina's government premises.

Governor Nikki Haley:

When you called on lawmakers to take down the Confederate battle flag in the state capital, you made a decision of a leader not a follower. Leading from the back of the pack is not what the people voted for but it is what so often happens.

You did not do that and I respect you. Now the lawmakers must follow your brave decision and vote to remove the flag. It is a simple choice. Does your state want to show loyalty to the United States and our common flag? Or do the people value the symbol of its historic treason higher than their love of country?

My respect for you is GONE. You have managed to become BHO 2 , before the respect for the dead you have managed to threaten all us regular folk to score political points for yourself. The uniqueness of the Confederate flag and your state being the first to join the CSA cannot be overlooked. You have stated many times that it is not the gun that does the killing but the person. [not the flag but the sick person that does the killing].

For now it is the flag on the grounds - your statement starts a slippery slope , from experience we all know that private use will NOT stand - just a matter of time [you have already referred to its use by hate groups]until you try to totally ban it.

You have abandoned your moral ground and given in to the rabble for what ? enjoy your momentary fun in the sun - it never lasts without the courage and commitment of truth. I realize I am from New Mexico however truth and courage are the same everywhere.

Governor Haley,

I regret your decision to support removal of the Confederate Flag.

You have capitulated & surrendered.

I have lost all respect for you.

The flag represents Southern Tradition & all it stands for.

Either you do not understand what Southern Tradition is or you do not have the backbone to stand up for it.

While obviously slavery was wrong (for the billionth time repeated again), the issues that caused the Civil War still plague America today. Only one example is the completely out of control federal government. Federal judges telling Southerners what defines marriage against the will of the people in the states is a classic issue demonstrating federal over-reach that the war was fought for. I could list a dozen other examples.

You are no leader and not deserving of respect.

Thousands of men died for Southern Tradition & you throw it away for political convenience.

Disgusted with you & Lindsey Graham also,

Link

Texas resident

Governor,

I find it very disheartening that you are supporting the removal of the Northern Virginia battle flag from the capital grounds. This flag stands for the history and heritage of the people in this state. It is no more a racist emblem than the Carolina Panthers logo is. You were put in office to support the citizens of this state that make a contribution to society, not the cancer that wishes to politicize everything they possibly can in an effort to destroy this once great nation. You have lost my support as well as the support of any decent conservative. I am ashamed to say I once supported you and voted for you. It will not happen again.

<MSG>

As a lifetime citizen of South Carolina I am in awe of the passion you have shown the past week! Taking a history relic that is the confederate flag and putting it in a museum has been needed for a long time. Thank you so much for standing on this platform and making a stand for South Carolina and our image. The flag is part of our history and that is just it...HISTORY! To take it off of the state grounds will hopefully bring some much needed peace and healing to the people of our state. As a teacher in our public schools this is a great win to go in the history book under your leadership and example of looking towards the future. Thanks you!

Dear Governor Haley,

I am a native of South Carolina in Greenville County. I am one of the many people that voted you into office. While I am extremely appreciative of the job that you are doing there are two of my concerns that I would like to bring to your attention.

First off, thinking that removing the Confederate Flag from the State Capital is going to help with hatred is looking at this all wrong. It will actually fuel adversity not reduce it. The flag is not the issue. It is the evil and hatred that is within all of mankind. You would be better served to turn focus to God Almighty along with every bible believing Christian within the state. Let Him be the dominant force in our lives.

Secondly, our road systems, interstates and highways are an embarrassment! Can we get the ladies and gentlemen that arguing over the money for their districts to give it a break? Come up with a plan, implement it and move on? All of the time that has been wasted with the arguing and positioning is doing nothing to repair our roads-please be a Governor of action not one of words. Words can be cheapened however when actions are put to work they are fulfilled.

Blessings on you, your family, your staff, our legislators, and all of the South Carolinians that call this state home!

Respectfully submitted,

Governor Hayley:

I am saddened to read that you want to have a part of our history taken down.....our Confederate Flag. This is a symbol of heritage and represents a past era of southern sovereignty. It has nothing to do with race!!! If you take down our Confederate Flag then you should stop Black History Month, Black Biker Week, Black Miss USA, Ebony magazine, Black Entertainment TV, Black Miss America, NAACP and the list goes on. Now I find all those things offensive and very racist.

Thank you so much for your statement on the Confederate Flag. It's not just the statement itself, but the thought that put those words together. You went a long way in disarming the most ardent defenders of the flag's location, while communicating to those on the opposite side of the issue, the real love and respect for the flag that many South Carolinians hold dear.

Whatever the outcome, thank you for the leadership displayed. That is governing at its best.

I am a born and raised Georgia Girl, but have lived all over this Great United States, I am feel so sorry for the families of the murdered people at the South Carolina Church, but the Confederate Flag is not a sign of anything other than the South fighting the North in the Civil War. The Civil war was not even about the slavery issue, but has been overly used to cause discord between the white and black population. The US Civil war was due to Northern industrialism, NOT SLAVERY! And if you all would look at the formation of OUR UNITED STATES, you would see that WE ALL WERE EITHER SLAVES, INDENTURED SERVANTS, or CRIMINALS! Why would you take a flag that means so much to so many! It was a sign that the south would rise again. Not a sign of racism! It makes me sick to my that anyone would go into any church and kill anyone. This man was sick, but not due to racism! He was just sick! Stop taking part of History and making it a form of Racism! Although I applaud the governor's sensitivity to the ill warranted outcry for the removal of the confederate flag which now waves above a state landmark, I fear it is a knee jerk reaction to a terrible tragedy, and the hijacking of a symbol of freedom by hatemongers. By removing this flag, it is giving it power as a symbol of hatred and racism. I grew up in Augusta, Georgia, and am no stranger to the ignorance of racism. Even so, the popular belief of the civil war being fought over the stake of slavery is in itself an error in judgement. Liberty from an oppressive centralized government, ruled by industrialists and money brokers was the fuel of the civil war. The abolishment of slavery was and continues to be a myth as to the reason for that terrible event. None the less, the Indian religion did not cease using the swastika (sic) as a religious symbol after Adolf Hitler hijacked it as his symbol of hatred. We must tread carefully and not be drawn into adding fuel to the fires of hatred by giving away our true beliefs due to a void of correct information. I am a recent transplant to SC, and am proud of its spirit of independence in a nation which has so willfully heeled to the continuing infringement of civil liberties by a corrupt and power hungry central government (ie: random road blocks and "document checks"). I hope the governor reconsiders her current policy, and can see beyond the fray of the mob, to truly understand how this decision can backfire, as credence is given to those who have stolen a once proud symbol, and converted it to serve their own twisted, ignorant means.

It is Heritage. Not hate. The cry of "Put it in a museum" was used once before about the Museum of the Confederacy in New Orleans, Louisiana. They got the original Confederate flag in the museum, then they tried to close down the museum. Do not listen to the people on the left who are only trying for some fast political mileage. Keep the Confederate flag flying at the State Capital.

While I am not a citizen of your state, my family has many roots there.

I think you are wrong to cave to the PC crowd in asking to remove the Confederate Flag at the capitol. That Flag had nothing to do with the events in Charleston. It is there to honor the memory of all the Confederate Soldiers from South Carolina who served and died in defense of your State. I have some of my ancestors who served with those Soldiers. I, and many like myself are proud of those men and feel it is a disservice to them to be pushed aside just to appease the media and a few malcontents who look for any means necessary to put a negative face on anything Confederate. I hope the legislators of your state see through this sham and stand tall for these brave men.

Dear Governor Haley and the Legislature of the State of South Carolina:

I do not live in your State, and rarely comment on the affairs of states not my own Colorado.

However, in my 75 years I've found that what affects a few (or sometimes even one) can affect us all, and have long observed that the Confederate flag seems to draw to it those with the harmful and hate-full ideology of "Them vs Us." It is long past time to relinquish this symbol of the tragic and long-ago Civil War and its aftermath, and vigilantly and diligently seek ". ONE nation, under God, with liberty and justice for ALL." (My emphasis.)

In this Light, I strongly support removal of the Confederate flag from State property. Its presence implies that the State of South Carolina condones the sometimes terrible consequences of its public display - which surely cannot be the case.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Jean [REDACTED]

The Honorable Nikki R. Haley
Office of the Governor
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

June 22, 2015

Dear Governor Haley:

I am but one voice. I am Thomas L. [REDACTED] II, a very proud "Sandlapper" born in Orangeburg, raised in Lexington and educated in Charleston.

The events of last week have opened my eyes, my heart and my pen.

PLEASE TAKE DOWN THE FLAG.

Per the stereotype, I am not the voice from which you would expect to hear such a request. I am a white, southern-male, conservative Republican, and a Citadel Graduate who sang "Dixie" at football games (we had to as "Knobs"). I am a [REDACTED] whose family arrived in Horry County South Carolina in 1771 via Surrey County Virginia. I am the direct descendent of a Patriot, who served under General Francis Marion and a Confederate, who served as a Private in the 1st South Carolina Infantry (McCreary's) (1st Provisional Army).

My ancestors earned me the right to call myself an American and a South Carolinian. An Uncle later preserved those rights as he fought in the Pacific during WWII. I am proud of my heritage, but not at the expense of offending my neighbor, the same neighbor who's pride in their family, their home, their state and their heritage equals that of mine.

I am not nor was I ever a soldier. I am a husband and a father. I am an American and a South Carolinian. I am a Christian whose heart aches for the beautiful nine lives lost and those that we may continue to offend by flying this flag. I will pray for you and the courage required for what will be a most courageous and righteous act. Let this be South Carolina's doing, not imposed by outside forces. Show the world who we are and why we love our "Great State" and those we call neighbor.

I am but one voice and I thank you for listening.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas L [REDACTED] II

How can you allow any ethnic group persuade you to remove part of SC heritage. I am truly disappointed in you as gov. for the state. There is a difference in heritage and hate. The flag had nothing to do with the murders in Charleston. You obviously don't care about the white heritage in SC as much as the black community who has always wanted any reason to remove flag.

To the Governor Haley.

Get out of this discussion. You and Bobby Jindal are Indians. You did not participate in this fight. Go get into and Indian & British fight and leave the Confederate Flag to we southerners.

It was our blood that drained out of our grandfathers & great uncles. The aggression of the Northern Politicians and Carpet Baggers still sting in the wounds in our sides.

An illegal war & an illegal restoration.

LEAVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG ALONE!

Dear Governor Haley,

The Confederate Battle Flag belongs on the State Capitol to remind us of our brave forefathers who fought for their homes and families and against the transgressions of big government 155 years ago - a battle we are still fighting.

What stupid and futile gesture are you going to propose the next time an evil little man does something horrible?

That the flag was co-opted by evil men does not tarnish the memory of those who fought with valor. Slavery was one of many issues that separated the North and South and hardly the largest. Stand for what is right and true and not what is politically expedient. I am deeply disappointed in your lack of knowledge of our history.

I know you aren't running for office this time around, but I won't forget your ill considered decision. I voted for you twice and never expected this kind of betrayal.

I could care less about the flag on the grounds of the Capitol. My problem is how can we as Citizens of South Carolina attribute the flag as the cause of the hate and in the same breath spend hundreds of thousands refurbishing "Former Slave Quarters". Both of these items existed 100 years ago. we cant change that , But we CAN show Both to our children to make them aware of the conditions of the PAST

Your announcement regarding taking down the confederate flag is 9 dead souls too late, Gov. Haley.

This should have been your viewpoint back when you stated that taking down the confederate flag was not necessary because it was not offensive to CEO s.

Clearly, your roots do not go back to pre Civil War South Carolina given you are a 1st generation Indian American. As I see it your "new" viewpoint is purely political....whatever looks good for Nikki Haley and the Republicans.

Simply put, your actions are completely disingenuous.

I listened to your speech and am so proud of you. You are an amazing woman, a wonderful leader and a stellar performer. I am in total support of the confederate flag being removed from the state house grounds. In addition to informing the members of the House and Senate about how I feel, please let me know what else I can do to help in this endeavor. Just to let you know, I did send an email to each member of both the House and the Senate to let them know my feelings and desire to see the confederate flag removed from the state capital property.

Governor Haley,

I've been a great supporter of yours but no more! Your decision to support removal of a flag that is part of our History; for which Thousands of Southern men died and families suffered; is a despicable political move so beneath what I believed of your character and love of our state and history.

Do you realize that this step, looking forward, places Every Civil War monument in our state and beyond at risk. Once that flag is removed, the far-reaching impact will be something you have not considered; you are denying our history and all the lives sacrificed.

This will give you a legacy that I doubt you will enjoy; sadly, you've betrayed those of us who believed you to be fair-minded and Loyal to our state and it's history.

I do not believe you have the Right to make this decision; the people of SC should Vote on it!

Dear Governor Haley,

I have always been a big supporter and have voted for you twice, now. I do, however, have to inform you that I am very displeased with your decision to back the removal of the state flag from the Capitol grounds.

Please understand that I am not a bigot, but see tremendous value in maintaining the rich southern tradition/ heritage that has come to characterize our great state. In my view, that flag represents the historical posture of our state as we led the charge to protect state's rights. Slavery just happened to be one of several issues that drove this posture.

Furthermore, I would submit to you that if the goal is to remove any reminders of the slavery issue, then perhaps you need to consider the removal of those of us who are white and whose families were, in fact, slave owners. I'm not in any way proud of that fact, but I do feel that we, as white South Carolinians, might also serve as painful reminders to those of color who are offended due to a heritage neither of us had any control over.

I am a white 63-year-old man who has lived in South Carolina since 1962. I am a graduate of USC Aiken as well as a lifelong conservative Republican. I want to go on record as to saying that I support totally the removal of the Confederate flag. It serves no useful purpose in being displayed at its current site. I would suggest they move it to the museum. There, it can be displayed and shown as to how it fits into the history of our great state. In its current location, it will continue to be a point of contention and division. This might be a stretch, but I can see how some people might consider it akin to flying the Nazi swastika over the main government buildings in Germany. Yes, the swastika has historical importance, but it should never be given a place of honor. In the same way, the Confederate flag is significant, not only to Southern history but also US history, it should not be given a place of honor established by any government agency. I realize that some people will have a hard time letting go, but now is the time to once and for all take action on this albatross that hangs around the neck of all South Carolina citizen. I have no idea how to deal with this problem short of a referendum that the citizens could vote on.

As a proud American with much respect for the sons and daughters that gave their lives for their families during the "War Between the States" it is imperative that the Confederate Battle Flag remain at the Confederate Monument on the Capitol grounds. Family members of Confederate soldiers should not be punished for the misdeeds and actions of a deranged person.

The Governor and legislature should honour the compromise that took the flag from atop the Statehouse dome in 2000 and placed it at the Confederate monument!

Attacking the heritage of those who died in the past fighting for "States Rights" will never solve any racial hatreds and divisions now or in the future!

As a great grand son of a man that fought in the Civil War I am in shock today. Although I pray every night for forgiveness about the shooting in Charleston I scratch my head as to why the flag needs to come down from the Capital.

What about the flag caused the shooting? I say nothing. Please do not bow down to political correctness.

Sincerely,

Stephen [REDACTED]

Today you became an embarrassment. You used to show strength but the past year or so you have been pandering to special interest groups. I have lost trust in you and my own party. Are you being paid off or threatened by the nabob in the WH. Next you'll cave to atheist and remove all Christmas displays or no prayer in the Capitol building. Maybe you'll limit drink size. You were a model Governor and the envy of other states. Now you are more concerned with media and special interest groups. If you had taken a poll or read newspaper polls you would have seen the majority of people wanted the flag to stay. I've never owned a Confederate Flag but now I will fly one over my house every day from now on. You have just created a racial divide not seen since the 1960's. Time for you to retire before the petition for recall starts. Are you even from South Carolina?

Madam Governor,

I would like to suggest that you retire the flag from state offices other than remove. Using the term retire, sounds more respectful of the rich history of your state other than the term remove. The museums of history is certainly an appropriate retirement for this flag.

I would also like to take the opportunity to express my condolences and deep regret for the recent murders of nine of your citizens. It was a strike against, not only the church, the community, and your beautiful state, but a terrible strike against and tragedy felt across our great country.

Thank you for your time,

Teresa [REDACTED]

Abortion seemed the best choice you offered for my comment...which is: Taking the Confederate flag down is ludicrous. It does nothing but make you look weak, and eager to placate blacks (read kiss black ass), and has nothing to do with an insane individual killing nine people. And I'm NOT a southern sympathizer, I'm from the north, have little interest in southern causes, and am personally neutral toward the Confederate flag.

Dear Nikki, (Please pardon familiarity, I am so happy.)

I am so proud that a female public servant took the step you did today. As a symbol of authority in your state, I think this will move many people forward. I think most Americans have at least some sentimental attachment to the Confederate flag as a symbol of courage and dedication, commitment. That's one thing; however, as a negative symbol of the enslavement of human beings, it is awful in that symbolism, for those individuals who remain ignorant of the values we must assume and uphold as human beings. I breathe a long sigh of relief, I am one of the American citizens who it has bothered as it was being used by some. There must be many, many people who today breathe a sigh of relief, and feel so supported by your gracious and graceful actions. It was a joy to watch.

Governor Haley, I just want to say how sorry I am for the terrible tragedy at the church last Wednesday night. It was so very sad and senseless. I am so impressed with the people of your state in how they have reacted to this tragedy. I know you are very proud of them. When I heard the people telling that horrible man that they forgive him and pray for his soul, I was just blown away. I have been a Christian for many years, but I don't think I could say that to someone who killed my loved one. Amazing! I am also so impressed with the outpouring of support and love shown to the church by your people as well as visitors and the march on the bridge last night by so many folks. I am just so impressed. I also want to say I think you were very wise in getting the confederate flag removed.

Sincerely,
Pat [REDACTED]

Dear Governor,

It is with great respect and admiration that I read of your courageous call to remove the Confederate flag from the SC State Capitol grounds. I applaud your call, both as a Christian and a son of the South (my mother's family has been in North Carolina since before the Revolution). It is time for all of us to move on and put this chapter of our beautiful region's history behind us. And thus to stand with our African-American sisters and brothers, in love and respect, by so doing.

God bless you and keep you!

Sincerely,

Anthony J. [REDACTED]

thank you for the announcement today that the removal of the confederate flag is at least being considered. south carolina in in a very unique position to make a very important statement and response not only to the unfortunate racial, hate crime and terrorism act of last week but also to the point of working to end racism in this country. south carolina could and really should also put it self in the front of gun control legislation and partner with every state to really start the kind of change that is necessary. ethically it is the right thing to do.

I VEHEMENTLY oppose the removal of the Confederate flag. It is NOT a symbol of racial hatred as so many blacks and spineless whites have portrayed it to be. It is a sign of respect for the tens of thousands of southerners from ALL the Confederacy who gave their lives for a cause they believed in and it was NOT slavery. You all are DISTORTING history!!! Hopefully I shall never have cause to pass through or visit South Carolina.

Your decision to pursue the removal of the confederate flag is long overdue. I live in your sister state of North Carolina and believe that the states refusal to move on from the past puts the entire south in a negative light. It must come down and be destroyed NOW! Why would we continue to want to be associated with such a negative representation. You must stand tall and use your power for the good of the south and all its people. We are not back woods rednecks and need to show the world this fact. Don't give up the fight, stay strong, and get it done. The sooner this is done, the sooner the we can recover and move forward. Best of luck in this endeavor, you are the right person to get this done.

Please leave the flag where it is. It is a part of history. You shouldn't cave to those who failed their history classes and say it is a symbol of hate. The person who had it removed in Georgia lost re-election when he had it removed here. Be a proud southern person. I mean every time I see Obama I see him as a symbol of hate. But I don't see him being removed from office because he offends me.

Thank you, Governor Haley, for your sensible decision to take down the offensive Confederate flag--long overdue. No need for debate, it's the right thing to do.

I hope you can work against the culture of violence, gun-worship, and racism that seems to be spreading across the country.

Many of us here in California support you. No need to reply--just wanted you to know you are heard and supported.

Governor, I want to say that you have just turned into one of the many 'politically correct' politicians by basically condemning the rising of the confederate flag. Do I personally believe it is morally right to do this? Heck no. Is it within the first amendment rights? Heck yes. You are falling to a low of following all of the left wing liberals that anything said is against any minority is politically incorrect. You have shown that your responses to things like this are political in nature and care more about losing votes than you are about your citizens rights. A damn shame. That is exactly what is wrong with the politicians of today.

It is time for it to come down. I was very moved by your speech today pertaining to this. My question is how can I influence my representatives and those from other areas of the state. If the amazing crowd could gather to walk the Cooper River Bridge on Sunday in unity, how can we come together in unity on the flag issue.

I am disappointed but understand that you were pretty much between a rock and a hard place. You said that one of the reasons for removing the flag is that it does NOT represent ALL South Carolinians. That being said, the African American Memorial on the Statehouse grounds also does NOT represent ALL South Carolinians. So are you also in favor of moving this memorial to say maybe a park.....but off the Statehouse grounds? Or are you simply pandering to political pressure? I would like a response to this issue please. It will tell us who you really are.

Govenor Haley,

Why are you trying to destroy history and heritage by removing the confederate flag? The Confederacy was about so much more than blacks and slavery. You as Govenor should know that....It is very simple, the Confederate flag did not commit the murders, the person did. Whoever thinks the Confererate Flag, a symbol of history, committed the murders is as crazy as the person who comitted the crime....what else can you take from our heritage?

Dear Governor Haley, I don't, for the life of me, understand why you would not honor the soldiers that this great State called to arms. Why is it that every time something terrible happens, somebody has to find something to blame--except the perpetrator? The Confederate monument and flag, on the South Carolina State House grounds, honors the thousands of non-slave owning men who fought for this State. Now, we can't even honor those brave men, of which my great great grandfather was one. There were many complex reasons for that War. We are erasing important parts of our State's history--the schools already have. We are portrayed as terrible people, racists. Then explain the bridge walk in Charleston this past weekend. The people of the Emanuel AME Church went through a terrible ordeal, and I am saddened by it; but it has nothing to do with gun control, or monuments, or the Confederate flag. I hope you will reconsider your stance on removing the flag from the State House grounds. Respectfully yours, Kenneth F. [REDACTED] Sr.

We should have a say so in the matter. I am done with the Republican party! You haven't united anybody-you just drove a deeper wedge. What's next????? What other demands do we need to meet to "prove" we aren't racist????? I am sick of this Federal administration ripping people apart and you want to be a part of that!!! You are no better than Al Sharpton! You. Graham and Scott will never get another vote from me again!! I am done with all of you!!!

<MSG>

Governor Haley-

I just saw your speech of today on the Confederate Flag being removed from display from the South Carolina.

Thank you for the forthright position you have taken on the matter. I am not really sure just what that flag means to me but I believe you got it right when you were outlining what that flag cannot be or become.

Let me be very clear politically. I'm a registered Democrat. I've voted in every election I've been entitled to. Beyond that, I wasn't really politically engaged until President Obama's first campaign for the US Presidency. I became an active and supportive Obama Democrat. For me, the rest is history.

I have followed your candidacy and terms in office as South Carolina's Governor. So I know your "politics" to a degree.

Today I saw in you a candidate I would support as a candidate for President of the United States.

I'd be proud and honored to see you become the first woman President of the United States.

Thank you, and should you ever decide to run for that office count on my support.

Sincerely,

-Kevin P. [REDACTED]

Dear governor,

I am writing you today because I find it offensive that you think you can take away peoples heritage!! I was born & raised in Alabama & I believe the past should be the past!! You shouldn't change the past, but progress in the future!! You can not call yourself an American or someone who respects veterans!! The confederate army were/are still people that fought for our nation..no matter the Cause!! Taking down the flag because of a few idiots makes as much sense as taking down statues to Martin Luther King jr!! I know that you probably think that we are all a bunch of hicks , but some of us are proud of our heritage & that's it !! Please check your political stance more than once before you make that kind of decision!!

I am writing as a citizen of South Carolina encouraging you and the legislature to work expeditiously in removing the Confederate Flag from our state house. It was never appropriate for it to remain and now is the time for leadership and action by the elected officials.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

I can not express enough my complete disappointment in both you personally and your administration in the upholding of the removal of the Confederate flag from the State House grounds. This flag is not a symbol of hatred or racism. It is a symbol of US history. You should be completely ashamed of yourself for not knowing the actual history of these great United States and how the Confederate flag played a part in all of us enjoy the rights we do today.

I voted for you in both elections you ran in to become the governor of this great state.....now I am questioning my choice in the fact that you are willing to give in to public/popular opinion. I thought you had more personal conviction than that!

Signed a very disappointed South Carolina Resident!!

are you proud that it took you years in office to suggest removing the flag of hatred? you should have removed it from the government property on day one in office. will it take more deaths to do something about gun control ? what if a black man with an arrest record walked into a white church and killed 9 whites? would that justify changing the laws so that those with arrest records could not buy guns? you are in a position to actually do something to improve lives / save lives. DO SOMETHING!

I supported the battle flag being removed from the capital dome and being placed on the grounds. Given recent events and what is the best for the people of SC in the future I fully support your decision to seek its removal and placement in the state museum. I'm sorry but the confederate battle flag is a decision for Americans to make, South Carolinians in particular. The western folk who made this country feed the world, responsible for the highest standard of living ever, modern medicine, engineering, oil and gas, governmental organization, military might etc. Do we forget the half a million white guys who died to free black people. The latter group by whatever metric you want to use for the large part are not working out here. Their contribution has been what...jazz and basketball. Ms. Haily in particular acts like a knee jerk liberal democrat. I thought she was a republican???

I have supported you in the past, and would have voted for you, if you had run for Pres.

Shame on you for running away from the politically correct marxist.

What will you do , when they come after the US Flag? Don't think it will happen?

I didnt think you would be so afraid of the "I hate America crowd".

I'll donate to whoever you run against in the future.

I support your decision to take down the Confederate Flag. I have been shocked that this flag is still flying over the capitol in Columbia. The people of the Emanuel AME Church, the community of Charleston and others have demonstrated the way forward with incredible human dignity. The state of South Carolina must reply in kind and take down this flag which is a symbol of hate.

I would like to make the Governor's Office aware that a large portion of South Carolinians have Confederate ancestors. Many of whom died fighting for this state. Shame on you for thinking that one rogue gunman in 2015 is cause to remove the confederate flag from the state house grounds. This decision is a dumb one to say the least. Your political career is over in the State of South Carolina. Maybe MSNBC needs a new commentator. Congratulations you're idiots.

I am a democrat, always have been, but you have shown me a new side of the Republican party and I am so proud of your party as well. Good job! You are the woman for the job and you have made such beautiful history today. I wish you well and have been BLOWN away by your compassionate response to a horrible event. Keep up the excellent work! Thank you so much for your courage to remove this flag from our state grounds. I only hope that our state department will follow through. I have very little faith in a republican elected official to do the right thing. You are a refreshing breathe of fresh air. How about a hate crimes Bill. Now is the time to push for this if you are serious about equal rights and treatment for all.

Thank you for the courage to call for the removal of the Confederate flag. As a descendant of Confederate soldiers, I understand those who see it as a symbol of their heritage. As the grandson of a KKK leader in rural south Alabama, I know how it became a symbol of bigotry, hatred, and oppression, and I can imagine how hurtful it must seem to the descendants of slaves. I believe your brave leadership will help move South Carolina and all of the South beyond the darkness of the past.

It is time the Confederate flag is retired and I read today that you are in support. The correct thing to do. You are to be commended for your support of such action.

Thank you.

Gov. Haley, I commend you for bravely taking the position, unpopular as that might be in your state, that it is time for the confederate war flag to be housed in an historical museum, rather than flown on government property. Your position reflects that we are one nation, and that racism and all symbols of racism, should have no place in our society. I hope your example will lead others to take a stand against inequality and hatred.

Thank you so much Gov. Haley for your support to remove the Confederate flag from the statehouse grounds. I was overjoyed at your press conference today. I was born and raised in SC and have lived away for many years, but I can't remember a day I was more proud of SC than today. It is a very good decision for your state and for our country. The grace of the AME congregation in Charleston was inspiring and I think it appropriate that the people of SC remove the hurtful reminders of the past from their statehouse...since it is everyone's statehouse. In memory of the beautiful people who lost their lives, I hope that this will begin the healing for our country.

Dear Governor I'm a progressive Democrat, however I am so proud of you to take a stand for the removal of a flag that stands for Jim Crowness, hatred etc...etc.... Your decision might not be a popular one and some of your party members may be against your actions. You opted to do what's right instead of doing what's popular! I know that your a busy person so I'll end now. Again thank you so much governor. I only wished that their were politicians like yourself that would cross party lines and not do what's popular for their party, but what's right for the people, we would be a better country.

Sincerely yours

Distinguished
 GOVERNOR NIKKI R.HALEY
 State of South Carolina
 Office of the Governor
 1205 Pendleton Street
 Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Respected Governor Haley:

Centralized upon historical conceptualized opinion I am profoundly satisfied by your decision to remove the Confederate flag from the grounds of South Carolina state capitol.

Fatherland most patriotic sentiments ceremoniously attaining its interior peace enduring from the Civil War unforgotten misery. Commander-in-Chief and President of the United States Abraham Lincoln acknowledged through his faithful commander General Ulysses S. Grant the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia under General Robert Lee commission. Solemn demarcation considered turning point on the devastating conflagration.

My Governor, high hopes enlightening characteristically cementing the bases of new society-- America the Beautiful upon recognition of victorious armies also welcomed into its mighty wings those humiliated by defeat disgrace. President Lincoln conscientious wording over Gettysburg battleground: ".Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. ."

Empiric lessons highest symbol of redemption it is only fair that General Grant subordinates claim post-mortem retribution understood their ultimate sacrifice will prevail up to posterity inevitable judgment--your gracious command bringing down the Confederate emblem sustains thought.

Out of respect we finally honor Lincoln's speech intentions when commendably visualized bravery in opposing forces by naming General Lee lieutenants:

Major-General J.B. Stuart; General Thomas "Stonewall;" General Richard S. Ewell ; General Ambrose Powell Hill; General James Longstreet born January 8 in South Carolina.

Governor, domestic war cloak-and-dagger put to rest not doubt Confederate pennant clumsiness cockeyed by your imperative political will--though I should end my remarks with the President final statement: ".It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us--that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion--that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain--that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Shameful.... Your HATERS are the ones wanting the flag removed. Learn from history and do not hide it because certain people say you should. I saw a nans name removed from dorm rooms at ECU because he was a slave owner. It did not matter the contributions he made that were many to the school. I am a proud southerner who thinks slavery was wrong but I will always support the men that died during that time. The real problem is spineless politicians who blow with the changing winds. Democrat and Republicans

My mother grew up in Camden-- my Dad was a life trustee at Clemson (Calhoun Courts was dedicated to him posthumously) and I can tell you with 100% certainty that they would be rolling in their graves (they are both buried near Clemson) at the Governor's disrespect for the honorable veterans who served during the Civil War. If the war was fought over slavery, Lincoln could NOT have offered the job of head of the Union Army to Robert E. Lee (of a prominent and large slave-owning family in Virginia) and would have freed the slaves in 1861 when war broke out at Ft Sumter instead of 1863. the Governor looks ignorant of SC history when she jumps on this Orwellian band-wagon- blaming an inanimate object (a flag) for the act of a druggie like Roof. It's just as silly as blaming the gun which the left does too- since destroying the Second Amendment is as big a part of the leftist agenda as destroying the First Amendment. Is Nikki going to demand that my ancestor John C. Calhoun's statue be removed from Charleston? I'd like to know-- please let me know if she thinks a man who defended slavery should be honored with a statue or whether she thinks it should be removed too. Sincerely, Margaret [REDACTED]

Dear Governor, Having voted for you on both of you Governor elections, I am very disappointed that you choose to dishonor my ancestor (Pvt. Samuel Elias [REDACTED] 14th SC Volunteers) who heeded their state's call for service in the Civil War. I mourned and prayed over this evil and monstrous act in Charleston, but am curious of your seeking revenge against a symbol of the brave men who fought for SC. (This is a Confederate Memorial, not the state house). The Holy Bible has also been hijacked from time to time. I don't expect you to change your coerced decision, and assume you will retire to private life at the end of your term. In the event you consider running for office, please ask Former Gov, David Beasley how it worked out for him, as persons that vote in primaries and general elections will not forget. Good luck in your private life, and consider me a former supporter who misjudged your resolve, character, and love of this great state. Mark

Governor haley,

I have seen in the media where you have said that the confederate battle flag needs to come down.this comment of yours represents just another capitulation to the left and a slap and spit in the face of not only the brave men of south Carolina that died fighting but also of their ancestors that have the reverance for these gallant men.when was the last time you walked across gettysburg,or fredricksburg or antietam or spotsylvania and stood in awe at what brave men did there.men who didnt own slaves but were fighting FOR THEIR COUNTRY against an over reaching federal government.men who fought solely for general lee because they loved the man so.me who had families to protect.men,REAL men.not the limp.wristed pansies of today,the ones that crumble and cry at the first sign of trouble.alot of them in YOUR PARTY,governor.were that you had the courage and intestinal fortitude of the brave men that fought and died for south carolina,you would be able to act like a LEADER,and tell the people of south carolina,the.country,the WHOLE WIDE WORLD,that you have respect and honor those brave men that fell all those years ago.thats what that flag represents.maybe if you were actually FROM here,you would have that respect.sadly,you cant marry into that.damn you governor.may the ghosts of all those brave men haunt your dreams until you repent your ways.show them respect

Dear Gov Haley,

What a sad, sad day for you, the politicians and the state of South Carolina and especially the proud people of your state.

Because of what happened last Wednesday, you and the elected officials have decided to remove the Confederate Flag from the capitol.

The flag had nothing to do with what happened. Replacing it will not stop hatred. It will only show you and your fellow politicians disrespect for 250,000+ Southern lives lost fighting for States Rights and unfair taxing by the North.

Governer Haley, let me start by saying I am a resident of the state of Florida. I am not one of your constituents but I have been a long time fan and admirer of yours. You have been an inspiration and a shining example of what the leader of a sovereign state should be. Until now. I understand how tragic recent events in your state have been. Every decent American has prayed for those families. We love our neighbors no matter their color or creed. It's who we are. We are united and that has been displayed over and over again. Especially after this horrific event. The people of your state have shown the world just how united they are. That said, you have just caved to the liberal media hype. You walked right into their trap and gave them what they wanted. At the expense of all of us. All of us who have/had pride in their state's independence. In our heritage of going our own way, despite what the federal government demands, or the media. I mourn for the nine new graves in your state. But you have just pissed on millions of graves. You've insulted the sacrifices of so many veterans who fought to ensure that flag flew on their Capitol. As far as I'm concerned, you will never be a candidate for higher office. You have just shown you will cave under pressure. Pressure that isn't even real. Nobody is amasing outside the state house demanding the flag be taken down. The media just started making up fake controversy, and you caved. You failed.

I saw the picture of Mr. Roof with the license plate, with the Confederate flat on it, but I also saw the South Carolina Flag and the US flag on that same license plate, OR you going to take them down from the South Carolina Capitol also. Seems only fair, that if one must go, all must go, in the nature of doing the right things.

 Governor,

Thank you for your speech today.

It was heartfelt and allows those who uphold History to Coexist with those that want to move forward.

I have never been prouder to be a Republican as I am today when an Indian-American Woman Republican

Great Job, Those of us in our Nations Capital Applaud you.

I voted for you both times you run for Governor. I extremely respect you & agree with most your decisions. But do not agree with giving in on our heritage. I have it tattooed on my arm. Do you want to cut off my arm? Just give these liberals a few years & they will have us all under their control. Gun control is next!!!!!!

I stand in support of your call to remove the Confederate flag from the State House grounds. Your leadership shows courage and compassion. You chose to do the right thing, though you probably have a political battle ahead. Please know that you have many supporters, and you can count on me if you need more voices in your effort to take down the flag.

P.S. I am a life-long Democrat, but I voted for you. I'm glad I did. You made me feel proud today.

Governor haley,

I have seen in the media where you have said that the confederate battle flag needs to come down.this comment of yours represents just another capitulation to the left and a slap and spit in the face of not only the brave men of south Carolina that died fighting but also of their ancestors that have the reverance for these gallant men.when was the last time you walked across gettysburg,or fredricksburg or antietam or spotsylvania and stood in awe at what brave men did there.men who didnt own slaves but were fighting FOR THEIR COUNTRY against an over reaching federal government.men who fought solely for general lee because they loved the man so.me who had families to protect.men,REAL men.not the limp.wristed pansies of today,the ones that crumble and cry at the first sign of trouble.alot of them in YOUR PARTY,governor.were that you had the courage and intestinal fortitude of the brave men that fought and died for south carolina,you would be able to act like a LEADER,and tell the people of south carolina,the.country,the WHOLE WIDE WORLD,that you have respect and honor those brave men that fell all those years ago.thats what that flag represents.maybe if you were actually FROM here,you would have that respect.sadly,you cant marry into that.damn you governor.may the ghosts of all those brave men haunt your dreams until you repent your ways.show them respect

So terribly disappointed in you, giving in to the vocal PC minority to troll for votes. Why is it that politicians rush trying to be the first to appease these minorities ? Why do the rest of citizens get left out? I had high hopes for your political future , but you'll never get any votes from my family. BTW I grew up in the Bronx ,so I have no dog in this fight other than watching politicians give in repeatedly to PC nonsense since your so keen on linking symbols that to your minority mind are so deviseve,we need to remove all christian items from the state grounds as deviseve and not representing all of us who live here.christians are more respopnsible for violence than any other group as timothy mcveigh proved in oklahoma city when he blew up a federal building.i will be contactting the white house and will live on in the intentions of having all christian propaganda removed from all state and federal buildings.
