Questions about Registration?

You will need a promotional code to open registration!

To ensure that only approved persons attend SC Thrive trainings but still have easy access for counselors to find new trainings, we have hidden the registrations. To see them, you just need to type in a promotional code in the red area as shown above. This should bring up available registrations! To get your code, email training@scthrive.org or your Regional Coordinator!

You will be asked for an EID Number!

Your EID number is your Entity ID Number in The Benefit Bank. We want to confirm that trainees are attending trainings as a user of an official SC Thrive Site! To ensure that you're registered as a member of the correct site, use the EID number, as seen above, while you're registering. Your Site Administrator should have access to your EID Number in your Site Profile! Questions? Contact training@scthrive.org.
