Hello Ms. Adams,

This is Linda Fasulo, a longtime journalist based at the United Nations where I represent NPR News.

I'm the author of a book called "An Insider's Guide to the UN."

It was published by Yale University Press in 2015 and is in its third edition.

I'd like to send you a copy if you thought it might be of interest.

If you have any questions about the book, I'd be happy to speak with you about it.

All the best,

Linda Fasulo
