I have attached a document with my tracked changes. Please let me know if you have any questions. I also made changes to make all dashes between the date and the narration consistent. I did not track these changes.

Thank you,
Haley

I found another name to omit. This is the final version, unless you have other corrections/recommendations.

Working on it. Got called into a meeting earlier. To be clear, you wanted it in an expanded formal format?

The violations are based on specific laws/regs and are summarized on this sheet; there are no formal names. These are referencing the actual citations, so are just fine to reference this way.

Staff have assured me that every single one of these has documentation. They have provided that in the deficiency letter and other information we itemized and sent to you this afternoon. They are not allowed to so much as send a deficiency letter without the proper documentation. I am happy to have them triple check tomorrow morning if that would be helpful. L

Please double check that these are the actual names of the violations – and there is proper paper work to back all 61 violations.
