Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, FUJIFILM Manufacturing U.S.A., Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of FUJIFILM Corporation, was established in beautiful Greenwood, South Carolina, in 1988; and

WHEREAS, with more than 2.5 million square feet of manufacturing space on 500 acres and a total investment exceeding $1.8 billion, the Greenwood complex is the company's North American Manufacturing and Research and Development Headquarters; and

WHEREAS, as one of the company's global manufacturing hubs serving customers throughout the United States and over 40 other countries worldwide, Fujifilm - South Carolina plays a key role in effecting the company's strategic vision and upholding its tradition of superior quality in both products and customer service; and

WHEREAS, the Greenwood complex is committed to ensuring the environmental, health, and safety integrity of its products and operations for the benefit of future generations and, in recognition of excellence in its environmental protection and enhancement programs, has obtained an ISO-14001 registration; and

WHEREAS, Fujifilm - South Carolina and its more than 1,200 employees are invested in their community, serving as volunteers and supporters of educational, environmental, and civic efforts that work to improve the quality of life for the people of Greenwood and the Palmetto State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2, 2013, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to congratulate the company for its outstanding accomplishments and significant contributions to our state over the past 25 years.
