The reporter has followed up with Corrections on this statement and they need something before the end of the day.

Does anyone have any feedback?

Below is a statement corrections wants to send to the Post and Courier regarding the story that is outlined in the email attached.

I've spoken with Stephanie and I believe I have all of the background we need, so feel free to come get me if anyone has questions.

He has also requested all of the grievance reports filed by the inmate, but Corrections has determined that those are not public documents without the inmate waiving privacy rights – which, if asked, we believe the inmate will comply with.

Brian,

Glenn Smith has requested we provide the statement and documentation by Monday.

Here is a draft statement:

“Corrections officials will abide by the state law that prohibits use of state resources for procedures while inmates are in SCDC custody.”
