

Housing Officials Visit Columbia

J. P. Broome, regional director, and H. C. Sullivan, also of the Washington office of the United States Housing authority, paid a visit to the Columbia Housing authority yesterday afternoon and reported that they were very much pleased with the progress being made on Gonzales Gardens and Allen-Benedict court.

They held a conference with the Columbia Housing authority and afterward were guests at dinner.

Mr. Broome and Mr. Sullivan are traveling by motor. Mr. Broome went last night to Spartanburg while Mr. Sullivan will remain in the city for a few more days.

Mrs. Broome was with her husband, and she and her father, J. K. Deming, retired Dubuque, Iowa, banker, were delighted with Columbia's gardens and generally beautiful spring attire. Mrs. Broome and Mr. Deming took the opportunity during Mr. Broome and Mr. Sullivan's business engagements to take a sightseeing tour of Columbia.
