To Whom It May Concern:

Our fifth grade classes have embarked on a study of our wonderful country. We would like to learn about all of the wonderful features and resources that the United States has to offer.

Please help our class by sending our students any materials (i.e. maps, brochures, postcards) or anything else that would help us understand and appreciate the resources of your site.

We are creating a wall-sized map to display the information and items that are sent to us. Our culminating activity will be on display at our Open House at the beginning of April.

Thank you so very much for helping to make this a meaningful and memorable event. You are contributing to our students' development and understanding of 21st Century Learning Skills. Our goal is for our students to understand that there is a bigger world than just our classroom.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jenn Schmidt
