Joe Gadberry The woke folk feel better posting crap like this. In reality it only divides us further.

Belle Boone What is wrong with you people? They can call themselves anything they want send you get not one single word of input about it. If you think it's racist or divisive then the problem is in you not them.

Steve Ledbetter I don't understand the hate and disrespect for this group. I believe they are trying to get more black people to go out and explore our state, hike and go camping.. Nothing wrong with what they are posting and certainly no divide. Much love to you guys.

Nathan Clark Why are some people triggered by black people? They didn't do anything wrong in the park

Julius Dease I love the message of encouraging Black families to enjoy and appreciate the nature that surrounds us all.
at 19:19:48 on 10/12/2020 UTC

Heather Murphy Great article! Saving this for my next road trip!
at 19:30:15 on 10/12/2020 UTC

Laura Norris Daniel It's so good to see parents spending quality time with their children and encouraging them to explore the great outdoors.

Markus Amoungus Joe Gadberry How is this divisive? Black people and women are woefully under represented in the outdoors. I backpack and hike a decent bit. I've hiked the foothills trail twice, Several other local trails in NC and SC, and the Appalachian Trail from Springer Mountain GA up through Pearisburg, VA (600 miles). There are almost no black people out there and a pretty low percentage of women. So the State Parks do a post showing "Hey this particular group of black people is out enjoying the outdoors, the outdoors is for everyone!"

I don't see it as divisive, I see it as trying to make a point that our national and state parks are there for everyone to enjoy.

Rendella Taylor Sounds quite ridiculous, The President of the United States is in the business of dividing the American people, it's a pleasure to hear from anyone who is creating a positive experience, the world will be a better place when we can recognize and be happy for such positive messages, keep traveling and telling us all about it
