Gov. Henry McMaster points at the building housing a Planned Parenthood clinic near downtown Columbia during a campaign news conference on May 29, 2018. Like other Republicans in the governor's race, McMaster has worked to show off his pro-life stances. Andy Shain/Staff

COLUMBIA - Two weeks before the primary that will decide if he stays in office, Gov. Henry McMaster pointed at a building near downtown Columbia housing what he called "the most extreme, the most destructive organization in this country today."

"There are young children, unborn children who are being killed right now as we're standing here just up that hill at Planned Parenthood," McMaster said at a news conference outside a faith-based pregnancy center. "There are young women who are having abortions."

Gathering reporters to talk about his stance against Planned Parenthood so close to an election was not much of a surprise. Abortion has been the biggest issue in the Republican race for governor this year - over roads, schools or the economy, concerns that usually worry most South Carolinians.

The five candidates running for the Republican nomination have aired ads focusing on their pro-life views and spent significant time during debates and forums picking apart details on each others' records on abortion.

"I am a bit mystified by how much time the candidates are spending on how much they love Donald Trump and how much they oppose abortion," Furman University political scientist Danielle Vinson said. "This does not distinguish them from each other and they all have the same position. Why spend most time talking about this?"

Abortion has always lurked around South Carolina Republican races, but the issue bloomed as a hot-button issue in the Statehouse this year with lengthy debates on bills that would ban the practice partially or all together. Republicans also are energized with a White House supporting pro-life matters and attacking Planned Parenthood.

"This is important to hardcore Republican voters: Being pro-life is their No. 1 issue," former state Republican Party Chairman Katon Dawson said. "You have to talk about it. It is necessary. The one who talks about this the most has a better chance of getting that vote."

Abortion is the murder of children to turn women into pornography and ending it's legality should be more important then roads, schools, the economy, or budgets.

Psalms 106:37-38 (KJV) Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,
And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

Each week Columbia, South Carolina's child-murder center in Middleburg Park off Forest Drive, aka Planned Parenthood [sic] normally has two "killing days" as part of its normal operation.

Columbia's "Auschwitz" at 2712 Middleburg Drive, Suite #107 normally kills preborn children each Tuesday, plus then also alternates each week between killing preborn children on Friday, or killing preborn children on Saturday.

Based upon SC DHEC statistics of 1,722 children reported exterminated at this Planned Parenthood child-killing center in 2016, an average of over 30 preborn children are murdered here each week, every week, for the entire year.

Since 1978, Planned Parenthood in Columbia, Richland County, SC has reported murdering tens of thousands of children. The land is polluted with shed innocent blood ( Numbers 35:33, KJV ).

Additional Information :

By definition, there are no "exceptions" to Human ( Natural ) Personhood:

In both Webster's Dictionary and Black's Law Dictionary used by attorneys, the first definition for "Person" is: "A human being."

Black's Law Dictionary (2009): Person = "A Human Being"

"person. ... 1. A human being. - Also termed natural person. "

<http://christianlifeandliberty.net/2013-12-09-Blacks-Law-Dictionary-Person-3.pdf>

So Is or Is Not the developing preborn baby in the womb of a human mother, "A human being." ?

Yes, of course. The answer is obvious:

If there are any "EXCEPTIONS" to Personhood, then we no longer have Personhood, nor a Personhood Bill.

'For the Murdered Unborn, Incrementalism is Not Justice'

'Incrementalism is Not Justice for the Murdered Unborn. Incrementalism Perverts Justice and the Law.

Incrementalism is the Regulation of Child-Murder-by-"Abortion". Incrementalism is Evil.'

'In the Sixth Commandment, God says, "Thou shalt not kill (murder)." Exodus 20:13, KJV. Jesus Christ says,

"If ye love Me, keep My commandments." John 14:15. Establishing Justice is obedience to God.'

Personhood is Abolition

- Personhood is abolition. Here in South Carolina, we have advocated passage of State personhood legislation continuously for the last 19 years since 1998

 [History of Personhood Legislation in South Carolina \( 1998 - 2016 \) ].

The current 2017 legislation in the SC Legislature is called the Personhood Act of South Carolina ( S .217 / H.3530).

- South Carolina Personhood legislation recognizes the Creator God-given, unalienable right to life of every human being as a "person" beginning at fertilization, in SC law.

Any "Exceptions" to Personhood, and we no longer have Personhood, we no longer have a Personhood Bill.

Either a child in the womb is a human being and therefore a person, or they are not.
There are no "Exceptions" to Human Personhood.

The Black's Law Dictionary and the Webster's Dictionary first definition of a "Person", is "A Human Being" !!!
