When there was no attending physician or midwife, the birth should be reported by the mother or father, or by a relative, or by a neighbor, or by a friend, or by a stranger, or by a person who was present at the birth.

If a child breathes even once, it must not be reported as stillborn.

Before the birth of a child, the mother should be informed of the requirements of this law.

It is the duty of every citizen to comply with the provisions of this law, and to report the birth of every child born in this State.
