A PERFECT GIRL'S WEEKEND -- at Hunting Island State Park

Wendy Mitchell If I brought my RV, would there be transportation from the campground? I don't tow a vehicle.

Bernadette Kuchinsky This sounds like a lot of fun.....I may look into going! Even if I have no one to go with me.

South Carolina State Parks Ladies, even if you don't have anyone to bring with you, you are sure to meet some new friends and enjoy your time! We had several people come solo last year and really enjoyed meeting new folks!

Wendy Mitchell Hi SCSP's. Can you answer my earlier question about the campground? Thanks.

South Carolina State Parks Wendy, there will be very limited transportation available. However, in years past the ladies quickly became friends and finding a ride was not a problem. Another suggestion would be to bring your bicycle and ride some of the trails too! Thanks for your question and we hope to see you there!

Wendy Mitchell No bicycle but am looking into that for my regular camping travels. I have other friends who maybe interested in going and am not sure about their biking situation. How far are the activities from the campground? If they are too far to walk, is it possible to take the motor home to those venues? Thanks!

South Carolina State Parks Wendy- great questions!.....the farthest distance you would have to travel from the campground would be about 3 miles, and you could drive the RV if needed.

Wendy Mitchell Thanks for the information. I have 3 friends who are interested (ages 60-70 yrs of age) and I'm really excited about the experience. I could probably squeeze all of us in the RV; but if someone wanted other lodging, would Beaufort be the closest area for that? I see the cabin in the Park is already taken.

South Carolina State Parks Wendy- The park will be able to help you out with more information about Beaufort and lodging. Please call the Nature Center at 843-838-7437. Have a great time!
