

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20151203South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10153763349883166

South Carolina State Parks

at 1:00:01 on 12/03/2015 UTC · 🌐

We're calling in the Troops to participate in a First Day Hike friendly competition, this New Year's Day. Which branch can hike the most miles? We want to know! Click below for details and here to find a First Day Hike near YOU: <http://bit.ly/FirstDay2016>

The poster features a central shield-shaped logo with a compass rose and the text 'JANUARY 1' and 'FIRST DAY HIKE'. Below the logo is the title 'Military Appreciation and Competition'. The main text reads: 'Attention all military personnel! The park service wants to know which branch can hike the most miles on New Years Day in a South Carolina state park. Hike as an individual, or bring your whole unit, but let us know how far you hiked, how many hiked, and which branch of the military you serve.' The poster includes sections for 'WHEN' (January 1, 2016), 'WHERE' (Many State Parks - Find One Year You!), and 'DETAILS' (We are honoring our Armed Services by having a friendly competition between branches! Attend a First Day Hike and let the park ranger know which branch you are with and how many miles you hiked. All miles count. Follow us on Facebook to see which branch won!). Contact information includes a website link, phone number (843-766-5236), and email (tconway@scprt.com). A silhouette of a hiker with a backpack is on the right, and a 'COME OUT & PLAY' sign is at the bottom right. The website SouthCarolinaParks.com is at the bottom.

Jenny McMillan Interesting. Ben McMillan
at 2:22:44 on 12/03/2015 UTC

Ben McMillan That sounds like a lot of fun.
at 2:44:57 on 12/03/2015 UTC

Jenny McMillan Yep. Wish you weren't so far away.
at 2:45:54 on 12/03/2015 UTC

Ben McMillan I won't be far on 01JAN
at 2:47:12 on 12/03/2015 UTC

Tags: hidden

Jenny McMillan Ohhh..... at 2:48:07 on 12/03/2015 UTC (hidden)

Ma Rs Ha Can we hike in honor of a branch if that service member will not able to make it?
at 1:07:52 on 12/09/2015 UTC