As we approach the holiday weekend, please know that South Carolina State Parks WILL BE busy. Most of our parks are operating at normal capacity and normal operating hours. It is not uncommon for parks to fill up and close for periods of time during busy weekends. Expect closures. Arrive early or later in the afternoon. Our staff will also be busy, and we will not be able to report closures on social media. Thank you for your patience and your continued support of SC State Parks. Before you arrive, please read all updates and important information, here: <https://southcarolinaparks.com/park-news/important-park-information>
