Brandi and her family have been punished for many years for a crime she did not commit and she and her family continue to suffer the loss of her presence! Reverse this penalty now, please!!

This is a wrongful incarceration! Brandi wasn't even home at the time this happened, how could she received the same punishment as the one that actually had hands on, that ended with the death of the baby!

I believe our justice system is corrupt in the fact that they don't seem to do all the work in forensics and other departments when they should!! The prosecutors just want that conviction rate to stay high... it's pathetic. We have rapists that get 2-3yrs and people that get arrested for marijuana serving 20+ yrs. This is absolutely unacceptable what they have done to this poor woman. Half of her life has been spent behind bars because of a broken system. This woman is my first cousin and if it were someone important's relative, I guarantee they would have spent 30 days in county and went on with their lives. She has a ten year old daughter who is also paying the price for this wrongful conviction. Please fix this before she loses more of her precious life to the prison system, we only get one life to live and it's bad enough her little boy will never live his, but to wrongfully take hers as well is a monstrosity!!!

I know this family and the hell they have endured trying to have this wrongful incarceration of their daughter/sister/mother overturned. SC should do the right thing and make this right.
