

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Videos

Record ID: 20090929South-Carolina-State-ParksVideos52748_1059918597659

South Carolina State Parks

at 13:12:29 on 9/29/2009 UTC

Listen as Devils Fork Park Manager Kevin Evans tells us about Bear Camp Falls, one of the many waterfalls on Lake Jocassee. This lake is awesome to view fall foliage.

Bear Camp Falls on Lake Jocassee

Paul Inman Devils fork is beautiful! Everyone should go.

at 13:32:10 on 9/29/2009 UTC

Tom Presnell I have been going to Jocassee since it was filling in the 70's to the present!! I have painted most waterfalls on the lake It is definitely the most beautiful lake I have every been on!! Such a peaceful and beautiful place!!

at 15:29:57 on 9/29/2009 UTC

Gina Nalley Bergholm any suggestions as to where I can walk to have an enjoyable picnic near some falls in the upstate region?

at 17:38:04 on 9/29/2009 UTC

Tom Presnell Rainbow falls, at Jones Gap is one of my favorites.

at 17:52:05 on 9/29/2009 UTC

Hope Gibson McKinney this is so crazy! its been a while since i've seen u! Tell Shannon hello for me!

at 1:16:21 on 9/30/2009 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Gina-- A great place in the Upstate for a short walk to a waterfall and a picnic is Issaqueena Falls just outside of Oconee State Park. There is a nice picnic area there and the walk to the falls is short and leisurely. You can hear the falls from the picnic area for added effect! Thanks.

at 15:42:53 on 10/01/2009 UTC