I am writing this to you in hopes of getting help for my husband, Hugh D. Hardy. We have spent the last 4 years trying to get disability for Hugh. Believe me, my husband cannot work. He is totally unable to. I live with this man. He is not a lazy man and has always worked hard all his life. But in 2013 he realized he could not do it any more. The constant pain, his tremors, and the numbness in his left side was preventing him from doing his job. We have done everything that was asked of us and released all his medical records. Yet, still, ~~has~~ was denied! I don't understand this system. I know people who got disability on line? How? Alcoholics, addicts, and others have had no problems! Please I am begging for someone to please look into this case and help my husband. He needs medical attention other than the free clinic. We are struggling to live on my social security check every month. Please, Please, someone help us. I don't know what else to do.

Sincerely Hopeful
Harriet Kiddle Hardy
