Subject: I can't thank you enough

Governor Hayley,

Let me first say that I have NEVER been interested in politics but I'm now doing whatever I can to keep you as our governor. You have amazed me during Hurricane Matthew. You have been the voice for the people of South Carolina and helped us be as prepared as possible and now continuing to help us when we really need it. Secondly, thank you for sharing the crisis hotline number. I called on Tuesday and today I had two gentleman from Sheep Dog Impact Assistance walk onto my property ready to do whatever they could do to help me. Their names are Chad and Mike. And let me tell you that Chad is my hero. He climbed the tree on my house and he cut with his chainsaw. He calmed my fears and I quote him saying "fear is what keeps us alive". These guys helped my father, father in law, and husband get the tree off my home. And governor, I was in a crisis and I now see the light at the end of the tunnel.

Let me explain my crisis! I purchased my home just three months ago. In the last month, I've had to replace septic drainage lines ($1500), was rear ended and my van was totaled so I'm still without a vehicle and in physical therapy, and then Matthew hit. We were okay until the tree started falling and then myself and my children were huddled in the hallway under a mattress for protection. My husband was too anxious to stay under a mattress! We were "rescued" by my father in law and his wife. Once we returned home we stared looking at damages. I was scared during the storm but became even more scared when we started getting estimates of over $2000 to get the one tree off our house. How can we afford this? My husband was about to climb our roof and tackle the mission himself when suddenly Chad and Mike appeared to assist at the perfect time. Although we are still struggling, some of my stress has been reduced just by me calling that crisis hotline.

So, thank you Governor Hayley for sharing this number. Thank you for all that you do!

With kindest regards,
Anna M Shirley
