EXEMPTION QUALIFICATION (S.C. Code Section 33-56-50)

Select ONE of the following bases for exemption under section A or B, not both. If none of these bases for exemption applies to your organization, you must submit a registration statement for a charitable organization.

A. Fundraising activities are not conducted by professional solicitors, professional fundraising counsel, or commercial co-venturers and you are:

- ☐ (1) an educational institution which solicits contributions from only its students and their families, alumni, faculty, friends, and other constituencies, trustees, corporations, foundations, and individuals who are interested in and supportive of the programs of the institution;
- ☐ (2) a person requesting contributions for the relief of an individual specified by name at the time of the solicitation when all of the contributions collected, without deductions of any kind, are turned over to the named beneficiary for his or her use, as long as the person soliciting the contributions is not a named beneficiary;
- ☒ (3) a charitable organization which (a) does not intend to solicit or receive contributions from the public in excess of $20,000.00 in a calendar year and (b) has received a letter of tax exemption from the Internal Revenue Service, if all functions, including fundraising activities, of the organization exempted pursuant to this item are conducted by persons who are compensated no more than $500.00 in a year for their services and no part of their assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to an officer or a member. Please provide a copy of any determination letter recognizing the charitable organization's tax-exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service and any changes, amendments, or revocations to that letter;
- ☐ (4) an organization which solicits exclusively from within its own membership, including utility cooperatives;
- ☐ (5) a veterans' organization which has a congressional charter;
- ☐ (6) the State, its political subdivisions, and any agencies or departments thereof which are subject to the disclosure provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

B. Regardless of whether your fundraising activities are conducted by professional solicitors, professional fundraising counsel, or commercial co-venturers and you are:

- ☐ (7) a charitable organization that does not intend to solicit or receive contributions from the public in excess of $7,500.00 during a calendar year.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
