This message is brought to you by Access Intelligence Direct, as a valued subscriber to Power Magazine. For automatic removal from this email list, see the information below.

Dear ,

We are writing to you as an Power Magazine publication subscriber. We (Power Magazine) work with many companies offering business related products and services that may be of interest to you as an Power Magazine magazine subscriber.

Access Intelligence Direct was established as a service to inform Power Magazine subscribers of products, services and other third party offers that we believe you will find helpful in your business or career. We realize your time is valuable, so offers such as consumer credit cards or other consumer products are not given access to our program. The most common offers you will receive are for business related software, seminars and services.

Access Intelligence Direct also limits the number of emails sent to our contacts each month, and never relinquishes control of email addresses to the third party advertiser.

If you would like to receive business or career related offers from Access Intelligence Direct you do not have to respond to this email.

You can easily unsubscribe each time you receive an email from us if you don't find the information worthwhile.

To unsubscribe now, please scroll to the bottom of this email for instructions.

Thank you very much for your time,

Sylvia Sierra
SVP of Customer Acquisition and Retention
