<SUBJECT>with respect for the 260,000 Southern American soldiers who died beneath her shadow I salute her</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Staff,

I just wanted to drop a note and say that I applaud the Governess and her stand on the Confederate flag.

I only hope that when it is removed it is done with dignity for the 260,000 Southern Americans that died in the conflict.

Below is a few lines I wrote about :

The War of the Rebellion IS over

Robert E. Lee stepped down off the porch and mounted his faithful companion (Traveler), and for a moment he gazed down at the valley where his Army of Northern Virginia (his boys) lay encamped. The mist in his eyes was thicker than the fog that rises in the Shenandoah Valley on a cool autumn morning. He tipped his hat to General Grant and with his aid he slowly departed. It was with the utmost respect for a great American General that the Union Soldiers lowered their caps. Not a cheer or word was spoken as Robert E. Lee passed.

On April 9th 1865 General Robert E. Lee surrendered his men, his arms, his love, but he failed to surrender her colors.

In 2015 her colors will finally be surrendered and with respect for the 260,000 Southern American soldiers who died beneath her shadow I salute her as she is lowered.

THE WAR OF THE REBELLION IS FINALLY OVER!

Sincerely
Bill [REDACTED]

Governor Haley.

Thank you for proudly leading our state during tough times. You have shown good judgment, . compassion and shown Christian love. Hopefully our citizens will agree the flag should not continue as an impediment to unity. I am sure that your defense of marriage is correct regardless of liberal attempts to call this an issue of equality.

Thanks!

Do you know Jesus Christ?

Well Jesus Christ was a Rebel and so am I and I was born and raised here in Spartanburg, S.C. and the Confederate Flag is part of my Heritage.
 So why don't you go back to India and take down the Indian Flag if you want to take down a Flag.

People come to America and think that they can take over everything and Run Over us people that was born here and our families have been here from the start in the 1500s and the 1600s.
 So stop telling us what to do because you need to sweep around your own door.

Calling for the removal of the Confederate Flag is something a liberal Democrat would do. Republicans are above this sort of political game-playing. A flag does not incite violence just as guns do not kill. Do you also condone removing the 10 Commandments since atheists find them offensive? Good luck in your re-election...a true Republican will vote for your opponent; someone who truly values the First Amendment.

Why did you reopen the confederate flag dispute when it was resolved in 2000. We caved in then without asking for a referendum from the public. If let them take that flag down you are opening the door to have all the monuments and street names in South Carolina to be changed. We were told the heritage act would preserve and protect our heritage in the future. If you think it's evil, let the people decide in a statewide vote to decide it once and for all. That flag hasn't kept the steady flow of new businesses coming here or tourist visiting. It's part of our heritage and let it stay.

My wife Kim and I are on a three week vacation. We are presently in Bozeman, MT. We heard about the church murders while on our trip. My wife Kim was born and raised in Travelers Rest, SC. and has worked as a server at Cracker Barrel in Greenville for over 25 years. I was born in Ohio, grew up in Georgia, graduated from GSU in Atlanta with a BS in Chemistry and have lived in Michigan and SC for most of my adult life. Both Kim and I have been fortunate to work with the finest black people you would ever have the good fortune to meet. My youngest daughter Melinda graduated from the College of Charleston in 2013. Melinda and I both observed that there seemed to be more racial separation in Charleston than Greenville. My wife and I have not put on our Charleston Tee shirts on this trip out of embarrassment. When I give my drivers license to hotel clerks they get concerned. I not only recommend you take down the flag immediately, but I would encourage law enforcement officials to question any hate organization members for any possible contribution to make them all think twice about belonging to such groups. This kind of hate is contagious and is learned from others. It isn't natural.

Sincerely,

R. Scott

Dear Governor Haley,

Removing the confederate flag solves nothing. You cannot erase history by eliminating the flag from the State House. What needs to change is the heart of man. Politicians need to stop perpetuating that we are all of different race. The fact is that we are of ONE race. I am afraid you might cave into banning guns as well. Guns are not the problem. Invest more in mental health and have people go through mental evaluation as part of the background check for owning guns. I pray our Father in heaven will grant you wisdom, discernment, common sense, and courage to lead during this disturbing time. My dear sister, do not abandon God's principles. Place your trust in Him rather than man.

I hope that you will help Governor Haley put incredible pressure on the S. Carolina legislature to put the Confederate flag in a museum and NOT allow it to fly from any government building. It is not a symbol of anything except S. Carolina refusal to integrate its schools and its refusal to acknowledge the realities of today. [REDACTED] Michigan teacher and mother

Please do not take it down. it's a part of the South's Heritage. A lot of very brave men and women fought and died in that war. You can not make that go away by removing a flag because of a few idiots. You were elected governor of a very proud state. Do not dishonor who that state is. it's very important. In all honesty the US would be stronger today had the South won. Which they would have except for General Lee's gaffe and arrogance at Gettysburg. I beg you to honor your ancestors and not give in to the radical few who blame the recent violence on the flag. One has nothing to do with the other. it is your heritage and a very proud one at that. I am a Daughter of the American Revolution and a member of the United Daughters of Confederate chapter. I have have never heard hate speech of any kind. My ancestor fought under General F Marion.

What will be next..... Street names, the confederate memorials, or SC county names? Will you say these names offend too?This is my ancestor being called racist. My ancestors never owned slaves.

Respectively, Patsy

To the Honorable Governor Haley:

We have never met. My name is Deborah [REDACTED]. At one time I was very involved in grass-root care in York County under several titles. I understand the need racial equality. We both know that racism will never be eradicated but in time I hope that it will be better managed.

I do agree that the Confederate flag must be lowered for the last time and placed in a museum. It holds a place there. I have been trying to read up on the events of that era. My resource is "The Annals of America; Volume 9; The Crisis of the Union; Encyclopedia Britannica, INC. The font is the size of a ants fanny and the volume the size of the York County phone directory. In my research I have found that the Civil War didn't start because of a flag and didn't end there.

I have been in touch with my Representatives, We Hayes and Mic Mulvaney and shared my views that the flag should be lowered to calm race relations in South Carolina.

I was very moved by Mr. President's eulogy at Rev. Pinkney's funeral. I watched from home. I do hope that it reached the right ears and calms conflict instead of inspiring extremist.

I'm not sure if my health will ever allow my work to continue. For now, I just keep my eyes on the news and pray for the best.

My best to you. I know that you're job is difficult.

Sincerely and Safe Journey,

Deborah [REDACTED]

I know the confederate flag has a meaning other than slavery but the time has come for it to be removed from state capitals. It belongs in a museum and has no place on state grounds in the year 2015. It is a insult, and constant reminder to black people that the southern states embraced slavery and were willing to die for it. It is sad testament to the ugly side of humanity that should be remembered but not celebrated.

My (3) of my Gt. grandfathers fought in the Confederate Civil War. You have let them turn the flag into a complete different meaning. You have let all these people that came to America after the Civil War high-jack the flag and made it dirty! TAKE DOWN THE FLAG and bury it as my ancestors were buried and let it rest in piece. You are dishonoring the civil war veterans. I am old enough to have known some of these veterans. They would not like this! The heritage belongs to the families that were here in 1860! Not to those that came in 1880 or 1920 as most have!

Do not rescind the Heritage Act nor remove the Confederate flag from the State Capital grounds. This Political Correctness crap has to stop. What's next, demolishing the Washington and Jefferson Monuments in DC and taking their images off of US coin and currency because they owned slaves? In America we have the right to offend others, like displaying rainbow colors on the White House in support of gay marriage (I was very offended at Obama doing that to the people's house). Stand your ground and don't bow to the pressures of the blacks and liberals--they're ruining this country as we stand around doing nothing to stop them, e.g., among non-Hispanic blacks, the out-of-wedlock/bastard birth rate figure is highest, at 72.2 percent; for American Indians/Alaska Natives, it's 66.9 percent; 53.5 percent for Hispanics; 29.4 percent for non-Hispanic whites; and a mere 17.1 percent for Asians/Pacific Islanders.

Giv. Haley,

I am appalled that just because one fool used the Confederate Flag in the hate crime committed does not warrant removing the Confederate flag because of this issue. As everyone knows that the Confederate is a part of this great nations history and by removing this flag, would be like erasing parts of Americas because we think its the right thing to do. It appears that everyone is so worried about being politically correct, actions are made hastley, which does nothing but makes matters worst. I hope and pray to GOD that everyone bans together and reverse the mindset in wanting to remove the Confederate Flag.

I have family that fought on both sides of the Civil War, so the continuing of the Flying the Confederate flag is a remembrance to the soldiers who fought in the Civil war!

Sincererly

Michael

I WAS GOING TO HILTON HEAD FOR VACATION AND CHARLESTON THIS MONTH,BUT JUST CANCELED MY RESERVATIONS. I WILL NOT SPEND A DIME IN SC AS LONG AS THAT FLAG IS UP. The Flag represents standing up to an tyrannical government no matter what the cost. I would appreciate feedback concerning this, this is 2nd msg to Govenor.

 <SUBJECT>Stop Destroying History PLEASE!!</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

You have caused a wave of American History to be removed. As a history major this really upsets me. More so when the facts and reasons behind doing so is wrong. I have wrote the President, all my state officials and I will be writing every states officials. I wish that TRUTH would be told about OUR history, instead of removing it for yet another cause. Do you think it will stop here? No, it will not your Honor! Please listen to me and many others who are begging for this to stop. It is way out of hand. The Governor of Tennessee is actually talking about digging up graves. Which is protected by their state laws! Can you not see the damage that is being done or the issues it is going to cause? History does repeat itself and you over stepped your boundaries and the laws that our founding fathers made to protect rights and to keep the governments of this GREAT COUNTRY from having to much control. Now, other government offices are following suit. You should be ashamed of yourself as should they. Please learn your history before you make choices based on the demands of the same people who were past disrespectful to OUR NATIONAL FLAG! Here is the letter I sent to my state officials and the President. Please read it and then please reconsider your actions.

This is the letter I wrote our President. I would like to ask my IL government officials to please help keep our history. Take a stand against this great injustice to our history and children who need to learn the many lessons from it. I have watched as our great country has become crazy since the very sad shootings at the church. Demands are being made to remove any and all historical artifacts that has to do with the Confederate Army. This is being done because people are stating the war was over slavery. However, that is not true at all. It was over economics. African Americans were not the only slaves and history shows that the first slave was owned by a black man whom took his servant to court and was granted the right to enslave him. The north actually had more slaves and was not about to set them free. Historical evidence shows this to be true as well as the southern Generals and many others set their slaves free before the end of the war. Most confederate soldiers were poor farmers who did not even own slaves. Tell me why they would fight to keep slavery that would only help the rich farmers and hurt them farther in financials? The north did not do free their slaves until after the war. Many Confederate soldiers were African Americans. Many of which were free men. No one is doing the research on these events or giving the truthful facts. These groups of people (all races) that are fighting about taking away OUR COUNTRIES history are the same people that walked on, stepped on, jumped on, and burned our National Flag. They used the excuse that they could do so because the Bill of Rights and our Constitution protects their rights to do so. Well people of the south have those same rights. They are being walked on. Everyone wants to scream that it is disrespectful to African Americans because of slavery. Okay well stepping on our National Flag is disrespectful to every soldier and their families that has ever fought for this country since the American Revolutionary War. Governors talking of digging up graves that are in fact protected by Tennessee's laws. This is getting to far out of control. I as a history major and a lover of all history begs ALL of our U.S. Government to put a stop to this madness. Good or bad this is a large part of our history. History cannot be hidden. Instead of removing it force the real education of the real facts about it and all history! Our National Flag was what was and is carried by the KKK and the Aryan Brotherhood Nation. Yes, at times the Confederate flag has been used for hate. However, more often then not it was the United States of America's National flag they carried. There are many pictures to prove this. There is one of them in Washington with a giant American Flag. There has been more hurt, death, murder, theft, and many other bad things that have happened under our flag. So I ask of you Mr. President should our National Flag be removed as well? I am greatly sadden that all these efforts of the government and non-government people is being wasted on the want of removing history. How are our children going to learn and see what this country was built on or how every race over came the problems and issues of race? Mr. President the NAACP has helped many enemies of the United States. One man was a Black Panther member who killed a white officer of the law. In March 2008, ABC News revealed that Barack Obama's pastor had preached that African Americans should sing 'not God Bless America, God Damn America,' that 9/11 proved that 'America's chickens are coming home to roost,' and that the U.S. government invented AIDS. The following month, on April 28, 2008, the NAACP's Detroit chapter honored the Rev. Jeremiah Wright as a keynote speaker at a massive dinner. In 2000, the NAACP filed an amicus curiae brief on behalf of Mumia Abu Jamal, the former Black Panther who murdered a white police officer in 1981. 'I shot the motherf----- and I hope the motherf----- dies,' three witnesses heard a wounded Abu Jamal exclaim in a Philadelphia hospital. 'I fight segregation with segregation.' The parting of ways saved the NAACP further embarrassment. Their founder made an ill-advised trip to Nazi Germany in 1936 that resulted in, among other lamentable items, 'The German Case against Jews,' an apologia in which Du Bois excused German anti-Semitism as a 'reasoned prejudice' based on 'economic fear.' For many, April 8, 1994 was the day the NAACP jumped the shark. The group invited a rogue's gallery of crackpots, extremists, and racists to a secret meeting, dubbed (take a deep breath): 'a deliberate mechanism for communication and interrelations between representative leaders of the progressive community and the NAACP within the inclusive mission of the Chavis administration and the African-centered self-determined program thrust of the "new" NAACP.' Attendees included black supremacist Leonard Jeffries, famous for his 'sun people'/'ice people' dichotomy to explain the differences between blacks and whites; Maulana Karenga, the originator of Kwanzaa who went to prison for torturing two women; and fringe presidential candidate Lenora Fulani.

5. Louis Farrakhan teaches that an evil scientist named Yakub created white people, claims to have been abducted in a UFO, and has made a mountain of anti-Semitic utterances. So it shocked many when the NAACP invited the Nation of Islam grand panjandrum to participate in a 'leadership summit' on June 12-14, 1997.

4. When Al Gore selected Joe Lieberman as his running mate in 2000, Dallas NAACP chapter head Lee Alcorn responded with alarm that a Jewish American had been selected on a national ticket. 'I'm concerned about, you know, any kind of Jewish candidate, you know, and I'm concerned about the Democratic Party,' Alcorn said on a radio program. 'And if we get a Jew person, then what I'm wondering is, I mean, what is this movement for, you know?' African Americans, the NAACP leader maintained, 'need to be suspicious of any kind of partnerships between the Jews at that kind of level because we know that their interest primarily has to do with, you know, money and these kind of things.'

3. The Obama Administration bounced Van Jones out of its administration after the media learned he had led a Communist organization, signed a petition claiming that the Bush Administration 'may indeed have deliberately allowed 9/11 to happen,' and organized a vigil on September 12, 2001 memorializing the victims of U.S. imperialism. Though Jones was ultimately too extreme for the U.S. President, he was just right for the NAACP's president. On February 26, 2010, the NAACP's Image Awards bestowed a 'President's Award' upon Van Jones.

2. In the 1970s, a judge sentenced Benjamin Chavis to prison for his role in the firebombing a white-owned grocery store in a black part of Wilmington, N.C. A judge overturned his conviction on a technicality in 1980, with Chavis's makeover so complete that the NAACP elected him chairman on April 9, 1993. A few months later, Chavis demanded the inclusion of the Nation of Islam in a 30th anniversary celebration of the March on Washington. He explained, 'I want everybody here to know that the NAACP is standing with the Nation of Islam.' Angela Davis, Sister Souljah, and Leonard Jeffries were among the extremists Chavis extended an olive branch to during his short tenure as NAACP leader. Chavis, a former Christian minister, has joined the Nation of Islam since his firing from the NAACP.

1. Ten years after the NAACP and W.E.B. Du Bois originally parted company in 1934, the civil rights organization welcomed him back. Whereas Du Bois's peculiar racial views led to the first parting, his support for communism led to the final parting in 1948. Du Bois subsequently eulogized Stalin as a 'great' and 'courageous' man that had been 'attacked and slandered as few men of power have been,' likened North Korean Communists to the American patriots of 1776, accepted a Lenin Peace Prize, was feted with a nation holiday in Maoist China, joined the Communist Party USA, renounced his American citizenship, and emigrated to Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana. They were also behind pushing for the riots in MO. The government has not stepped in to stop them. They are not a part of our history. They are hurting our country. Yet, rights protect them to do so. My point is Sir, how can Americans and our Commander and Chief allow these wrongs to go on and side with the removal of our history based on uneducated people or drama starters? History does repeat itself. Will the south allow their heritage to be removed without a fight? I believe they will not. Who could really blame them. America is falling apart for many reasons. Why add to them? Our Natives faced a lot of hardships due to the white man and the armies of America and Britain. Do we see them rioting, destroying cities when one does wrong and a officer of the law does his job? Do we see them making demands that anything that has to do with their ancestors heartaches be removed? No, why not? The past is the past and they are humble people. Americans should learn this from our Natives, who by all rights should be upset and making demands. We have black history month. You cannot go into a city with out seeing MLK having roads named after him. This is all part of history and I am glad it is there. However, if the removal of all the confederate items is allowed then everything to do with Black activist must surely come down, because there are many that are offended by it. Where are the white activist honored at? Many gave their very lives to support a very good cause. Yet, we show nothing in America to honor them. That offends me greatly because it is left out of history education. Where are the history months for other races? This country was formed on the labor of immigrants. Yours and my ancestors (as well as my native ones). Many other races were treated badly and enslaved like the Irish. Not one thing shows this and it is not being taught in our schools. I beg of you and your staff to please do the research and put a stop to this non-sense. If half of the states governments and this demanders would put 1/3 of their efforts, time, and works into helping the elders, teaching the actual history, making sure kids and vets needs are met, and education America would then be taking a step towards improvements that are very healthy and great for America. Steps to a better country that is empowered by standing together and not fighting to destroy rights of others. Here is another example many Christians are past offended by the gay marriage rights and that their businesses have to carry insurance that cover abortions. Is this fair to them or their God give rights to believe those things are a sin? Not really however they are embracing it and not demanding these things to be removed. Of course they have fought it but they done so and was told no by our government. Our founding fathers did not intend for the Government to have so much control. Actually it put laws into place to keep this from happening. Yet, by taking away history and telling southerns who have much of their heritage in the things that are being removed the government has over stepped their rights. These same rights that the government is using to force Christians into insurance that is against their beliefs. The same laws that protect gay marriage is destroying the south. The same laws that protect racist groups like KKK, Aryan Brothers, NAACP and many others are destroying southerners rights. I pray every day for this country and her people. I pray that our President will step up and say enough is enough we can not remove our history good or bad. I will do the homework and I am more than happy to send it to you and your team if that is what it will take. Please sir stop this madness before it is all out war in America. If our troops and people are fighting each other who will protect our boarders? Who will stop our enemies from stepping in and taking over? Other countries reserve their history and so should we. Other countries look at us as foolish, greedy, and stupid people. I am ashamed to even say I am an American at this point. I am ashamed of who America and her people have become. I am ashamed that our government is taking to much control and making the worse calls ever! Half of my check goes to taxes and for what? So the government can step on my rights some more? These are the very questions American people are asking. Sir it is your duty to protect all the people of our great country. That is your number one job. Part of protecting them is protecting their rights. Demand better education. This is something the first lady has been pushing. Help her help our young people in knowing our history and all the true facts. If our President and First Lady will not fight for our rights as Americans, then who will and what is the point of either? Listen to the Southerners. Read the facts and reach out to the people in this country. Please Sir I am begging you to save our history and make our education better. Even if that means American Children go to school all year. It would be better than a race war. Which is what is going on. Although, today I heard the preacher state that was not the case at the funeral of the Dear Rev. He is wrong. Go on Facebook and read the remarks on the news medias reports about this subject. Listen to the people and find away to help this country. That is your job. The south will be heard and I hope it is peaceful and our government hears them and protects their rights!

If you find the Confederate Flag is a symbol of hate because it was seen in a photo used by the Charleston shooter, then the American flag was also seen in a photo with the Charleston shooter. If you remove the Confederate flag you should also remove the American flag, they both must only represent hate. You will have to erase all of SC history & remove all artifacts regarding SC role in the civil war. Sad days ahead for SC. Did you think it was just about a flag. I know that your decision has already been made, you are making a wrong one. You need to include the American flag as well since there are people around world think it's a symbol of hate. Have always proudly worn my SC tee shirts when I go on vacation to show I'm proud to show where I from. Guess I'll have to wear something else now. SC should just fly the Palmetto flag only, it's the only one not a symbol of hate. so far why? Im not sure if you had history class in your schools but I did. That flag was a battle flag,when the south wouldn't back down to a money hungry tyrant Lincoln. He hated that our states had rights and he couldn't bleed them dry. the war was over state rights and taxation without representation which is exactly why this country was started and departed from English rule.The idea of slaves being freed didn't come about until the war was almost over. so stating the flag represents slavery is just ignorant. your going on tv with your statements and you might fool the lowlifes of your state but the people with good since know your making a fool out of yourself. so I would love to hear your explanation of HOW it represents slavery!!!! im fairly sure you don't have one.lol. that flag represents that our state will never back to tyrants foreign or domestic(which is you right now). I would of never voted for you if I had any idea that you had no idea of our history. your worried about a 3 day "bike week" shutting your economy down, well what about the oyther 362 days out of the year. We might haft to work to pay for the ones that want the flag down but we do have vacation days and we can protest also; we can boycott SC products and destinations. All your doing is empowering the people who burned our capital to the ground. the same ground under your feet, the same building your in right now. flag represents slavery that's a joke and the day it comes down you will be too. Im making it my mission to stop this, for my kids and there kids. my kids will not grow up being second class citizens because of weak people like you. I see you hugged up on that hate mongrel Al Sharpton. I see whos side your on. Our people have stood back and had everything taken from us by people like you. You were the biggest mistake I have ever made on election day. My mom told me to never vote for a woman because there weak and will fold under a little pressure and she was right. It makes me sick knowing this is my kids future. did you take anything down after the terrorist acts of the looters of ferguson or Baltimore?? so I guess your ok with some hate and terrorism. you have no right!!! Just tell me Governor WHY is the flag coming down??? When you go on that podium making your statement I hope you know what real tax payers think of your words.

Governor,

I think enough is enough. The Legislature raised the flag and it is their responsibility to either keep it or have it removed.

The Newsome woman went over the cliff and South Carolina should prosecute her to the fullest extent of the law. A slap on the wrist is absolutely unacceptable.

The tragedy of Charleston, SC has finally brought about positive change for our society. The rebel flag is gone !! But it should not stop there, The plantations where so many African-Americans suffered should be eliminated also, and the owners of those plantations should be required to financially compensate the ancestors of the slaves that made those plantations so rich. Another eye sore that should be removed from the face of the earth is the "Old Slave Market" in downtown Charleston, SC. It is a constant reminder of the suffering of the African-Americans who's lives were forever destroyed and whose families were ripped apart. Such suffering cannot ever be undone, but for all African-Americans, past, present, and future, this monument to such suffering should be wiped from the face of the earth.

Governor Halley: I am not a citizen of your fine state but I did spend several years in the wonderful city of Charleston. I am a northerner born and bred but my heart loves the South.

Please, Governor Halley, do not remove the flag from the Memorial, please!!!!

I have admired your spunk in many areas of leading your state, don't give in to the mass hysteria being put upon your state, our country. You know that flag has nothing to do with deeply embedded racist irritation, it has to do with control and power by a small group of people. They have no understanding of the significance of that flag just that it is something they want removed because they want it removed. Racial baiting and dissension will not stop because that flag is removed, you know this!!!

If being allowed to walk all over, burn and destroy the flag of the United States is allowed because of someone's First Amendment rights then the forced removal of the Confederate flag is a violation of that same First Amendment. Dissenters cannot have it both ways.

I know in my heart and soul you feel many of the same emotions, have the same understanding of what is taking place over this flag as I and so many others do. Please take a stand against those that only wish to flex their muscles and show their superiority by belittling the history of our beloved country.

That flag did not kill those nine people in Charleston. Removing it from the Memorial will not stop the race baiting going on in this country. Only someone willing to stand against those people will make them take pause in their vindictive agenda.

I saw this quote just last night and it is soooooo appropriate to these times. "You can't start the next chapter of your life if you keep re-reading the last one." There will never be racial peace in this country until people start looking at all the good that has been done.

Praying you will do what is best for you, your state, and America. (And all us closet Southerners!!)

God bless.

Good afternoon, Governor. My family has been in America since well before the American Revolution. Members of my family fought and died on both sides of the Civil War. As a result of my family history, I firmly believe that the Confederate Battle Flag should not be flown on any government grounds. However, the wiping of references of this time of history cannot be construed as appropriate. Those who do not remember history are condemned to repeat it.

I would like to let the Governor know that my husband and I are against the removal of the Confederate Flag. This has been a constant thorn in the sides of some people. It is a symbol of our southern heritage, both black and white suffered through the War between the States.

We the people of this state do not get to vote on this. You did not have to do this in trying to appease the black community.

I have supported everything you have tried to do for this state to make it a better place, I know you have had a lot of trouble from the good old boys that have been in office far too long, but you did not have to start this up again. It is political suicide.

You may think in Oregon we are not impacted by what you do in South Carolina. However, my teenage son bought a confederate flag years ago to stick on his large, 4 wheel truck. I asked him what it meant to him, and he did not know but wanted to drive around with a confederate flag. I informed him that is screamed segregation, oppression, and a war fought to rip the country apart. I implored him to remove it because of what it represented today, in modern times. He did not and I'm sorry he did not realize the message he was sending to everyone who saw it on his vehicle. Please take the flag down in South Carolina. The war is over. Do not encourage another generation to wrap themselves in its colors for less than noble reasons.

Taking down the flag as you can see will not stop these people from demanding more. Next they will want Fort Sumter torn down and all monuments in the state removed and demolished. All culture and heritage of South Carolina destroyed. I'm for leaving the flag up. It has never fired a shot. The biggest racist we have in this country is Obama and we are playing right into his hands of destroying the southern heritage. His speech yesterday at the funeral was how bad whites are to the blacks. Worst of all you hugged the monster racist.

I appreciate that politicians feel the need to change opinions like the breeze when public reaction dictates. The truth behind the history of the flag and the reasons for succession should be taught to the mindless masses that occupy social media. The Confederate flag (in any of it's forms) was never a symbol of racism or slavery, it was the proud standard of the Southern states that were being taxed to the verge of bankruptcy by the Union. The Confederate flag never flew over a slave ship, that was reserved for the Stars and Stripes as well as the British and French flags. Don't be afraid to be proud of the heritage you share. Thank God for the people at Gettysburg who are refusing to remove this piece of history. You should stand with them and refuse to bow to reactionary social media. Tomorrow they will have a new cause to bludgeon and a proud piece of Americana will be in the dustpile of revisionist history.

I think this should be thought out further and discussed with the people! You are sounding too much like politicians and follow the crowd with political correctness. There is too much destruction going on now with regarding to this country's history.

I 100% AGREE!!! LEAVE OUR FLAG ALONE!!! It was NOT about slavery ... It was about the North taxing the South unfairly!!! Never had a thing to do with slavery ... give me a break. Read your OLD history books ... Do some research!!

The video of the young woman removing the Confederate flag from the flagpole brought tears to my eyes. I had been wanting to do that myself, but I couldn't imagine my 59-year-old bod making it up the pole. Please take it down and leave it down.

Gov. Haley, first of all I want you to know that I have always been an ardent supporter of yours, but have been deeply disappointed, and hurt by the actions you are taking to strip me of my southern heritage, and divide this state even more by calling for the removal of that flag. What you are doing will deeply divide us more than ever before. Removing the flag will not bring racial harmony. That piece of scum that killed those good people in Charleston would have killed them whether the flag was there or not. That flag did not produce the evil within that young man, Satan did. He was, and is demon possessed, not confederate possessed. You and President Obama have turned this country into almost a communist state. I can't buy confederate flags, shirts, etc. Anything that has any southern symbol on it, is now pretty much illegal. Welcome to Russia. You have jaded the memory of those blessed souls that were murdered in Charleston to a political war. Mr. Roof is getting the race war that he intended to start when he murdered those people at Mother Emanuel A.M.E. Church.

I hope you are proud of yourself for starting a race war. My ancestors fought under that flag to stop the invasion of their homeland. You and Lindsey Graham need to read up on your history in a public library. Yes, the flag has been misused by lunatics in the past just like the lunatic that murdered those 9 innocent people in Charleston. Lincoln has been called the "Great Liberator". What a joke. He started a war to preserve the union. There are quotes of Lincoln stating the he thought the black race to be inferior and not suitable to live in harmony with whites. That's his opinion, not mine. The South was financing the Northern states' infrastructure expenditures with the taxes being paid to ship cotton to the Northern textile manufacturers and they couldn't afford for that to happen. Lincoln came up with the Emancipation Proclamation to try to incite the slaves against their masters in the Southern states that he had no control over. It did not free the slaves in the states that he had control over. Slavery wasn't abolished until after his death by an amendment to the constitution. I'm sure that you are smart enough to already know all of this and you must have had an ulterior motive like trying to win the blacks over to the Republican Party.

Governor Haley,

I just wanted to salute your leadership in the aftermath of the church shootings. While other politicians dodged or ignored questions about the Confederate flag, you took a stand. Now other politicians are following your lead.

While other Republicans hemmed and hawed, you acted decisively in both opinion and action. It's good to see someone take action based on beliefs rather than internal polling. That's called leadership. America needs more of it.

I hope someday I get the chance to vote for you as President.

With Great respect,

Ken [REDACTED]

To the Honorable Nicki Haley:

In light of the recent events in our great state with the tragic hateful crime that occurred in Charleston this past week and the ongoing debate over the Confederate flag flying over the memorial, I as a white South Carolinian call for its removal to a museum.

The flag which flies over to monument to the fallen is a symbol of divide and hate. If one would only research history, one would find out that this flag was not even flown in battle, but incorporated later by hate groups that were rebelling over the reconstruction of the south.

The divide between races in my opinion is and will be an ongoing but soluble issue. What we face is learned behavior. If we are taught as children to love all as God loves us this wouldn't be the problem it is today. I grew up as a child in the south and took place during integration. I was taught to love all and in earnest, that is the answer as demonstrated that the great city of Charleston proved.

Herein though lays an even deeper issue; poverty, job opportunities and education of those less fortunate. To be honest there are no short term solutions, but a long term commitment to teaching our youth both white and black that government entitlements and the cycle behind it only creates a culture that is disfranchised with reality.

In closing I in my opinion wholly believe that the flag which flies above the Confederate Memorial should be replaced with the American flag atop and the Christian flag beneath. This in my opinion would signify united we all stand and by faith as South Carolina has shown, we believe. I also know that there will be some that will even protest this move, but we here in the bible belt have a majority that believe in Christian Values.

John Lydgate once quoted, "You can please some of the people all of the time, you can please all of the people some of time, but you can't please all of the people all of the time."

Thank you for your time;

Sincerely, J. Allen [REDACTED]

 <SUBJECT>Removal & Desecration of the Flag from a War Memorial</SUBJECT> <MSG>

Gov. Haley--

A leader should have presence of command, and not be easily spooked by fear of a rabid mob. It is wrong to consider removing the Confederate military "Stars & Bars" battle flag from the Memorial to the Palmetto State's Civil War Dead. While not a life-long resident of South Carolina, I do know that historian David Hacker's revised accounting of the casualty lists for that war, done in 2012 with modern statistical analysis, place the total number killed at 370,000+. Of those, 30-35% were Southern men between 18-40 years old. That may not sound like much to most of the history-ignorant members of the "tear it down mob," but extrapolated into today's numbers, that translates into 7.5 million souls! Those members of the South Carolina's regiments that served in Kershaw's Division in The Peach Orchard & Wheatfield of the greater Battle of Gettysburg, and all the others, may have been Johnny Rebs, but they were still American fighting men, and they deserve better than the short shrift they're getting all of you timid political "hay-makers."

If that little psycho Roof had been eating a slice of apple pie, y'all would be running amok cutting down all the apple orchards and vilifying Johnny Appleseed for spreading his 'seeds of evil', chasing down the Pillsbury Doughboy with rolling pins for his 'crusty' support role, and demanding ALCOA shut it's doors for providing the pie tins.

If the mob has a gripe it should be with the civilian Confederate government, which called the shots & flew an entirely different flag. Where was the morally-outraged march through downtown Charleston demanding the demolition of the Old Slave (Oh my, could that be an "S-word"?) Market, where humans were sold like farm tools in a hardware store.

I am still waiting to see our local PBS station have the guts to do a Black History Month program about William Ellison, an 1860's well to-do, self-made black plantation owner, who was the largest slave owner in South Carolina. That man got his start by buying his black cousins!

Sadly, I found out this weekend, that even Gettysburg has been cowed into removing the Stars & Bars from its souvenir stores. Makes y'all wonder how such a big battle occurred if only one side showed up, eh?

The Civil War, like most wars wasn't pretty, but then civil wars are uglier than most because a nation guts itself. It is for that reason one faction or another shouldn't be hidden from its citizens, why I am ashamed of anyone remotely like President Obama trying to divide us against ourselves for whatever the reason. America has climbed the ladder of racial and ethnic tolerance faster than any other nation on earth, and for self-serving politicians to make media points by kicking us back down to the "playing field" of the rest of the world, should never be forgiven or forgotten.

Yours in service,

K.J. [REDACTED]

Heritage not hate. This is a matter of our history which we have a right to celebrate. If this comes down then all the other "historical" monuments and displays need to come down as well!!!!

The Confederate Flag stands for our heritage. It is a sign of people who came together to stand up for their freedom. Right now that freedom is trying to be taken away from all of us.

Please, woman to woman. Take down the flag. Just stand up, walk outside and take it down. It's that simple. Then you can have a lengthy debate in congress about putting it back up. What a show of character that would be.

I wish to thank Governor Haley for taking the stand on the removal of the Confederate flag from the Capitol. It's the right thing to do and though unpopular among many in our state, it is past the time for this to happen. We must move forward positively and look to the future for our great state. We must unite and all work together and this is one important step towards doing that.

Thank you.

Dear Honorable Governor Haley,

I love it that you are standing up against something whose time is waaaaaaaaaaaaay past. I thought of this line earlier this week and I wanted to send it to you to use on those state senators who still want to keep the Confederate Flag Flying on the South Carolina State Capitol Grounds...

"Wanting to keep the Stars and Bars flying over the State Capitol Grounds because of quote, Southern Heritage, is exactly like The Republic of Germany saying they would want to fly the Swastika over the Capitol Grounds in Berlin because it's their, German Heritage."

I give this to you free of charge. Just hearing you say it on the news would be fantastic! If you need another speech writer, let me know. Thank you for your time and May God Bless!

Peace, Love and Rock n' Roll!!!

Putting the flag back up seems cowardly, please have the courage of your conviction to remove the confederate flag from state grounds and finally relegate it to museum status. Its presence continues to serve as a state endorsement of racial discrimination. I find this sad and embarrassing as an American, and a community member who lives in and serves a very racially diverse community on the 'left' coast.

We congratulate you on your efforts to remove the Confederate flag from the state capital. We were horrified to learn that the flag is flown on state capital grounds and in other public venues. The flag needs to go if not to unite us then to make this hate-driven murderous spree count for something.

If individuals and groups want to show their support for a flag that represents hatred, slavery and our most shameful period in history, they are welcome to proudly fly it on their properties, but I was and STILL am shocked to learn that this relic and symbol of a divided nation is flying over any state capital in this country.

To add to this indignation, the hate we are seeing spewed by the supporters of the flag is absolutely chilling. In what world can we hope to heal ourselves when there is this ferocity over a flag that belongs in the museum, not in our public domains?

Our fear is that we will see much more hate and retaliation as a result much like what preceded the Civil War; but it must be confronted and conquered just as before.

We can only imagine how difficult this position has been for you. Please know that even though we are not residents of your state, that we consider you a hero for all Americans.

Thank you~

Dear Ms Governor, I thought South Carolinians as a whole had more intelligence and integrity than to equate the recent church shooting to a State's Rights symbol like the Confederate Battle Flag. And that they had more guts than to cave in to the external rants of the black racists and liberal morons that run Washington. Of course I would expect this out of someone like Lindsey Graham who's been nothing more than an overpaid whore for the Israeli government for years. Apparently he has wider aspirations now like being a lap dog for the Obama clowns.

I enjoy my time when on vacation in South Carolina.....usually in Charleston.....in fact I was in Charleston for 2 weeks on vacation. My vacation ended a week before the unfortunate shooting by Roof at the Charleston Church.

Flying the Confederate Flag has always struck me as odd.....almost un-American. The meaning has always been, to me, a racial one and an intent to conceptually defy "equal rights for all people".

I find Charleston quite charming, but I must admit, some of the 'tone' i witnessed in Charleston is disturbing and counter-productive. I visited Middleton Place while in Charleston. One of the folks on the tour was a Southern white fella....and he just could not stop ranting about how terrible the Union Troops were during the Civil war....how they burned the plantations etc..... he just could not stop his hateful rant on the union troops. For me, I am not fixated about the unfairness of either side during the civil war(thats yesterday's news).....I am concerned about ISIS and our inability to address that threat.

My wife and I went to a Salsa dance at 'Voodoo' in Ashley. A mix of Black and White were attending, something I am accustomed to being from the North. A local white gal, who told us she was born and raised in Charleston, started talking to my wife and me stating how unusual it was for Blacks to mix with Whites, that they "go to their own places" and how upset she was with the Black attendance at the dance ..... I have to say we were surprised..... !!

Prior to the two encounters discussed above we booked a month vacation for next year in Charleston.....we may still go.....but, frankly, with this flag thing and our own first-hand experiences.....I'm not sure we will go. My take-away from my two weeks in Charleston and this "flag" issue is that there are many in South Carolina fixated on the wrong topic to the detriment of themselves. to the State, and to the nation.

Good Luck to you and God Bless.....

Rich

I am extremely disappointed at the Governor's attack on the Confederate flag. Radical Blacks are trying to make that flag out to be something it is not. You don't understand and can't relate to those people in your state who are descendants of Confederate soldiers who fought under that flag. I used to think you had a bright future as a Republican on the National stage, but not anymore. You have thrown under the bus the very people who elected you to the office you hold today, just to appease radical Blacks. If the people of your own state can't trust you, why would anyone outside it? I'm done with the Republican Party over this and have told Reince Priebus to forward to the NAACP any requests for donations from the Party formerly addressed to me. You guys blew it big time on this one and it won't surprise me if it costs Republicans the Whitehouse in 2016.

With very little respect and great disappointment,

Ronald [REDACTED]

I ask that the flag stays on top of that pole. I am member of the sons of confederate veterans and my ancestors faught in the civil war. Hate groups like the kkk and skinhaeds have disgraced the battle flag. All of you politicians want to do is whatever pleases the government. Yaw do not care about SC or the heritage."please lets not offend anyone" Those five words define the united states of america. I am very disappointed in sc. I will be moving out of sc, I have a battle flag in my front yard and there will be snowballs in hell before i take it down.

I have been wondering a long time now about the Confederate Battle Flag. My question to you and the Senate/House is why would the State fly a flag that was flown during battles? Quoting&lt&lt&lt; "Designed by William Porcher Miles, the chairman of the Flag and Seal committee, a now-popular variant of the Confederate flag was rejected as the national flag in 1861. It was instead adopted as a battle flag by the Army of Northern Virginia under General Robert E. Lee.[30] Despite never having historically represented the CSA as a country nor officially recognized as one of the national flags" With that why not fly the 13 star "Stars and Bars" flag? Quoting&lt&lt&lt;"The first official national flag of the Confederacy, often called the "Stars and Bars", was flown from March 4, 1861 to May 1, 1863" I would think the Star and Bars would be an acceptable compromise by all. Good luck with the flag issue.

I want you to know my feelings on you trying to remove the Confederate flag from the state grounds. I think it is a disgrace for you to even try. What do you tell the families who lost there family during the war under this flag?????? The flag being removed is not going to do a thing but just a political move. I think you will lose a lot of votes and will not be elected again cause you are not listening to the people but to the people that are trying to cause trouble. I have one question to ask you and that is how did that flag cause the death of 9 people in Charleston?????? I am ashamed to tell people I am from SC now because of this and that our government is this conceded to want to disgrace our SC history this way? Read the history of the flag cause evidently you don't know it. You will never get another vote from me for anything cause I think you are a disgrace to the state of SC.

Well Nikki,

You should have done what was right when you had the chance. Too bad your team did not have the courage to put others first and take that horrible racist symbol down immediately after the deaths of those innocent people. At least someone had the guts (yes, maybe she should replace you as the gov since you lack the common sense to be able to take a simple flag down!!) to sacrifice her freedom to remove the symbol of hatred.

You snooze you lose. She is a hero and you should retire.

Dear Governor: I'm a neighbor in Matthews, NC. I have not lived in South Carolina but visited many times. First I'm aware that the flag decision is really for the citizens of your state. I would like to, as an outsider looking in, say kudos. I've lived in TX & NC. My childhood home was Midland, TX where there is a Robert E Lee HS. As a child I remember their drill team using the Confederate Flag in the halftime shows. I didn't think anything about it. In 2000 I watched the flag debate & felt outsiders should stay out of your state's business and the flag should fly however ya'll wanted it to. Now after the Charleston tragedy I agree that it should no longer be flown in an sort of official capacity especially on government grounds. Perhaps it ought to be in a war museum displayed in its historical context but not as anything official or sanctioned by the state government.

Secondly, realizing that murder charges against the shooter (I shall not dignify him by stating his name) are the responsibility of the District Attorney & ultimately the state AG and SC Justice dept, I imagine it could be problematic IF the very state indicting him is sanctioning the flying of the very same flag that he posed with prior. I believe you're doing the right thing. I think your actions will only benefit your state, possibly beyond your expectations.

Dear Gov.Haley, congratulations on the great job you have done for South Carolinians during your short time in office thus far!!!! I lived in S. Carolina for 15 years before moving back to Ct to reconnect with my family after my husband died. Two of my children still live there and I am planning on moving back soon. The tragedy that struck Charleston made me cry. I still believe the Confederate flag needs to be placed in a museum and NOT on the capitol grounds. I certainly hope you will accomplish this soon. I wish you all the best on your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Governor, we the citizens of this great state did not elect you Governor in order for you to destroy part of our heritage. The Confederate flag may not have much meaning to you but it does to many of us. It did not kill those poor souls in Charleston. You should worry about the laws that allow for the murderers prosecution, instead of blaming a flag that had nothing to do with it. The Flag did however Represent this state in a war where many of its sons both black and white Died fighting against an oppressive Government. I urge you to change your stance on this matter as many of us are still willing to fight against the same.

I would like to suggest that the governor tell those wishing to remember the Civil War for historic and/or heritage purposes to use the first Confederate flag, the so-called "Stars and Bars" for that purpose. This is the flag with three horizontal stripes (red, white, & red) with a blue canton with a circle of white stars for the Confederate states. It has not, to my knowledge, been used by any hate or racist groups and would be a fitting replacement for the battle flag which has been misused by those who would divide people against one another.

Respectfully,

Joe [REDACTED]

Dear ms Haley,

I was disappointed that you called for taking down the battle flag after a crazed man killed nine people. That flag killed no one! You were governing on emotions and that is a sign of weakness. You should know the history of that flag. It had nothing to do with slaves. Old glory has more to do with slavery. I think you did the right thing wrong. I do think it should be placed in a museum along with the African-American monument that was a concession for placing the flag from the dome to the grounds. You Can not remove one without removing both. I hope you are prepared for what may take place. I am hearing many people say they are tired of being pushed. They too have things that offends then ex. People wearing turbines, pants below other butt in public, black history month, NAACP which promotes one race, black awards shows, black TV channels, to name a few. I will be in prayer for our grate state. Matthew 18:19, So mode it be! Rev.R.W. Page [REDACTED]

Please do not bend to the growing political correctness. Our country is a democracy and it seems that people forget that. If one person gets offended it must stop. That is not how it is supposed to work. Please remember the history of the south and their pride. It is not just about slavery. Nobody living today has been enslaved. We even have a black president. We must not sanitize history so that we don't see hatred when it's head. My husband & I were looking for somewhere to retire and your state was #1 on our list. Between your politics, gun laws and location we felt it would best fit us. After living in a highly liberal state and having our right and liberties trampled with political correctness your state was a breath of fresh air!

Please stand your ground. The south has a great tradition and like it or not that flag is part of the tradition.

Sincerely,

Holly [REDACTED]

Why is it that you can offer so much love and support to the families of the victims in the church shootings, but you couldn't care less about Lynn Harrison who was shot in Summerville not even 3 months ago! ?! She was a God fearing Christian woman on her way to meet her son for lunch when Jimi Redman pulled up next to her at a stop light and shot her. Now he's claiming PTSD! Why doesn't her life matter? Where is the love and support for her family? I believed in our state and it's officials. Yet, every one of you let us down.

Though completely unrelated to the tragic events in Charleston, you decided that it was a good political move to have the Battle Flag removed. Once you got that ball rolling, the following has taken place: vandalism at the Confederate Memorial in downtown Charleston; 2 people vandalizing the memorial at the statehouse by taking down the flag; in Austin, TX, vandalism of the statue of Jefferson Davis at the University of Texas; St. Louis, vandalism at Forest Park of the Confederate Memorial at the Missouri History Museum; Richmond, vandalism at the Jeff Davis Memorial; and others. In some instances, people who supports the memorials, rallied in support and in the case of Richmond, the supporters were armed. Governor, you have to accept a huge part of any bloodshed that may occur across the country since your political ploy that began these events. Not being a Southerner, you would likely not understand this, but many.....I dare say most, of the people of the state will not support you on this. The war of the 1860's was about the right of the state to govern itself...not only in matters doing with slavery, but mostly in many other areas where the national government had exercised undue control. South Carolina proudly removed itself from the grasps of such tyranny and became independent. The leaders of the day made that decision and the people of SC supported it with the homes, wealth and in some cases, their lives. You are wrong to discard their sacrifice in an attempt to get black voters to vote Republican. This will backfire. Your heart is not in SC. The people love this state and its heritage! Mr. Roof wanted a war between the races, and, with the help of you and others like you, and looking at events around the country, that may just happen. It's on your hands.

The removal of the flag is wrong. Historical preservation is mandatory in this case.

Thank you for your standardized automated reply. I was simply offering a means to assist in the community's healing process. I'm not for or against the battle flag, I'm pretty much an outsider looking at the issue from outside the box with a constructive view and a simple solution.

Thank you for the response.

But, it is obvious that bold and rapid action is required. For many Americans the Confederate flag is a symbol of brutality, slavery and treason. It can no longer be flown on any government property, unless of course S. Carolina would like to be its own country... which is something I would support if the change is too hard.

For those who look at the confederate flag as some sort of ancestry let them display the flag on their own property. There they can be free to pay their respect to their brutal and treasonous heritage. I especially encourage that for businesses so that visitors to your state know who they are patronizing and can plan accordingly.

Dear Governor Haley:

Thank you for responding to my email. As you can imagine, my emotions are running high concerning this tragedy. While the legislators debate over taking this flag down, please remind those who want to let the voters decide that the voters didn't have a say in putting it up. Also, please eliminate this ridiculous confederate memorial state holiday. We all know that this holiday was created in retaliation to the federal ML King, Jr. Day. Most state agencies and not any federal agencies or businesses acknowledge the state confederate day. Prior to MLK Day being an official federal holiday in SC, folks wanting to take that day off had to use their annual leave; the same should apply with those wanting to take the confederate day. Please have this flag removed before July 18th when the homegrown terrorists arrive to town in their colorful robes. Let's not allow outsiders undo the good work that's being done in our state; remember, the world is watching us. Please don't allow those seeking re-election to allow blood to run down our streets. The world is in a shift, Believers have the opportunity to minister to the world like never before. Please change the codes for allowing terrorists to assemble in our city and state because the Klu Klux Klan is no different than Al Queda, Nazis, the Dylan Roofs, and Timothy McVeigh terrorists in this country who are about Genocide and overthrowing the government. Also, schools will be starting several weeks after the terrorists arrive. The downtown area is surrounded by several colleges and universities. How many parents do you think will send their children anywhere near a state of unrest?

Sincerely,
 Sandra [REDACTED]

Thank you for your response. I am very aware of the nine people who were killed. It was tragic. Just as Colombine was. Did we close all of our schools though and permanent remove them. No. The young man who shot and killed those 9 human beings would have killed at some point anyway. Just as those who were responsible for Colombine would have. And those who flew the planes into the World Trade Towers. Those are all examples of people who don't need a reason to kill. So media showing a photo of the young man posing with the Confederate Battle Flag..was of no real consequence. True enough it represents a dark time in the history of the United States. That does not mean we should hide from our past. Rather, we should embrace it so we do not make the same mistakes of the past...The idea of removing the Confederate Flag or removing monuments to Confederate dead...is WRONG! Political correctness...is not the answer, placating a few is not the...answer. Hiding the flag in a museum that few will visit is not the...answer. We need to be proud, sad, shocked and awed at our past which has brought us to the present. To firmly avow that atrocities from our past...never happen again. The Confederate Battle Flag represents a past that happened. Hiding away does not mean it did not happen. If we do remove Confederate flags from our Southern States, what's next, shall we contact the Department of Veterans Affairs National Cemetery Administration and have them remove all of the "monument"... tombstones of our Confederate and Union soldiers who died for a cause they believed in. Should we call upon the President of the United States of America to remove, by Executive Order...all military monuments and flags. Therefore, disrespecting, demoralizing, completely trampling on all of our military and founders of this once great nation of ours. Squashing the personal freedoms and ideals that this nation under God was founded upon in 1776, with liberty and justice for all. The right to free speech, shall not be infringed upon...waving or displaying the Confederate Flag...is freedom of speech by definition. We do not condone what te young man did. Any loss of life is tragic. But we do believe in every Americans rights guaranteed them by the Bill of Rights. Freedom of religion, freedom of speech and the right to bear arms...to name a few.

I am very disappointed that the people killed in Charleston were used as an excuse to push a "politically incorrect" agenda to remove the Confederate flag. The person entered and killed 9 people at a church due to hatred and evil not a flag.

As a person that has spent a significant time studying the Civil War, I am very disappointed that the Battle Flag is probably being removed. The flag is a historic symbol to South Carolina and being located on the capitol grounds was not bothering anyone. This historic symbol is being removed due to a small group of Americans that are using the Battle Flag for hatred.

I am deeply offended by the Rainbow Flag and what it stands for as is most of the state of SC. However, I have not seen Governor Haley or the SC legislature fighting for the people that are offended by the Rainbow flag.

I personally have never considered purchasing a Confederate Flag before yesterday. However, I probably will purchase one from the Mom and Pop stores which still sale the flag. I also will become active in the charity groups which support the Confederate Monuments as I believe the next step is to begin removing any historic Confederate symbols in SC.

I am Republican and have voted for Governor Haley twice. Given the opportunity to vote in the future for an office which Governor Haley runs, I probably will give my vote to another person.

Regards,

Gina [REDACTED]

Honorable Governor Nikki Haley of the Great State of South Carolina

I appreciate your response to a very difficult situation. However, the question remains that why is it only our symbols that offend people.

Harriett Tubman was a felon, aiding in the movement of stolen property across state lines in defiance of both state and federal laws. John Brown was a terrorist. He attacked innocent people and condemn them to death, without trial or reason. He attacked a federal arsenal for the purpose of an uprising. He was not a uniformed soldier or acting under a recognized government. Both now have statue in place for their heroic efforts.

Those symbols of oppression, as you refer to them, are symbols of heroic efforts of a people willing to stand their ground for the ideals they believed in, not of aggressive act of violence.

We can be offended by many things, but to attach meaningless act of violence to a symbol because of its association with a certain part of history has little to do with "binding up the wounds." but has more to do with a power struggle much like that of the 1860's.

With all due respect, I respect your decision to do that which is necessary to restore peace and togetherness in your state. May God be with you in this challenging time.

We fly a Third National Confederate flag on the court house lawn next to that of a soldier. When agreeing to this honorable placement, we ourselves place in the agreement and minute of the meeting that if it every came to be a problem, we would ourselves remove the flag. We have never had any incidences.

Thank You for listening.

An admirer of the Great State of South Carolina

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing - not by talking about issues that divide us - but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

I'm sure this is probably a mass generated kind of thing, but I wanted to thank you for taking the time to actually reach out to those who contacted you, of which I'm sure are many, and let them know your plan moving forward. I think that will do a great deal in helping the healing process...maybe not now, but once the ire dies down a bit. History is one thing, hatred and violence another. Thank you once again. Take care, keep doing the awesome job you're doing and God bless.

With much respect,

Thanks you for your response. Unfortunately, you are simply wrong on the issue. The Confederate flag is being used as a "red herring" issue that has absolutely nothing to do the tragedy which took place. Demagoguing the issue is simply falling into the left's trap, and is freshly dividing not only your state, but the nation as well. I urge you to reconsider.

Sincerely,

Governor Haley,

First off you are doing an awesome job in South Carolina. I just want to say shame on the political leaders for letting people blame a flag for what happened. Please blame who really needs blamed the individual and his parents. If he would have been raised properly and with morals like the majority of the people raised in the south such as I, this wouldn't have happened. Please don't let them blame the Confederate flag.

Thank you,

Gov Haley, It shouldn't take a act of Legislature to remove the Flag. Enough Racism, Discrimination over the years, time to move into the 21st century. The Flag belongs in a Museum, SC is a racist state, the KKK is holding a rally, what does that show you??? Remove the Flag Now. Be the Adult in the room. SC needs to pay for the Families of the victims funerals. If you don't have a person smart enough to remove the flag, just go outside and ask the first Black Person you see, I bet they would take it down, asap. GOP CIRCUS does it again.

Governor Haley,

Thank you for your reply. I hope South Carolina's House quickly follows the lead of its Senate. I hope the House ignores misleading statements like those attributed to state senator and majority leader Harvey Peeler, who is quoted in today's newspapers as having said "Moving the flag won't change history." Mr. Peeler may be correct but his statement is irrelevant. What matters, of course, is changing the future.

Your statement calling for the removal of the flag on the Monday after the shootings was gracious and moving. I guess even a politician can do the right thing. Well done.

Dear Governor Haley,

I don't get, I guess I will never get it.....kowtowing to the very demographic who didn't vote for you and who will never vote for you. It just never occurred to me that a flag would take itself off a pole in Columbia, travel 100 miles down the road to Charleston, kill 9 people, travel back to Columbia and reinstall itself on the pole. I honestly thought a derranged druggie did the killing.

Respectfully,

Thank you for your reply.

Maybe a simple solution is to replace the battle flag with the FIRST or THIRD National Flag. These flags represent a NATION in our history and not a hate group.

Sincerely,

Jerry

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing - not by talking about issues that divide us - but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

I'm signing because this is our heritage and our right just like any other flag is to anyone else that flies. You all know the real history of the flag, a few people use it wrong. But people use a lot of flags wrong.

These politicians are starting a precedent of letting sensitive group complain it's way to political change. That is not supporting of the American ideal that people can have different views. In this case we are removing tributes to military veterans to satisfy a ridiculous racial branding of the historic Confederate flag. Show some respect for the Americans this flag honors.

Honorable Governor Haley... I'm Walter and a lifelong Jersey boy who has never been to SC. But I do have a friend whom I hope to visit who lives on Pawleys Island. The Confederate flag is part of our American history. It does not advocate nor condone slavery. It does not display a swastika or a hammer and sickle. On the 4th of July I will proudly fly the confederate flag from my porch alongside the Union Jack in honor of our youngest and strongest who fell by the sword. I am a young 70 years old and have no AZ. I do study and understand the civil war. Not all slave owners were sadistic. Many treated the negroes with care and respect and made certain they were well treated. So fly the Confederate flag with honor to our history.. Thank you Governor.. God bless you and yours and God bless America.. Walter [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley...I hope that you do not become brainwashed by the nonstop media coverage after the horrendous murders in Charleston. The Confederate Battle Flag (CBF) was moved to its current location about 15 years ago. In that time, there have been no racial/racist attacks on anyone until Dylann Roof killed those 9 people in the Charleston Church. Had the flag had the power to incite racial hatred and violence, there would have been more attacks on black people by whites within the 15 year time period. There would have been horrific white on black crimes between the last 15 years. I hope that you will not fall prey to the constant influence by the media and other politicians to remove the CBF so as not to "offend" anyone. Certainly, no one should feel threatened by the flag as people are not committing heinous and racist acts like the one that Roof committed. Last weekend, 11 people were shot in Detroit and the press barely reported it. The difference in the focus is that the media knew that this would be a very controversial, emotional, politically correct and thought provoking story. So, the media aggressively attacked South Carolina, guns and the Confederate Battle Flag with glee. Please stand firm for ALL South Carolinians as that flag represents the lives of South Carolina lives lost and not slavery or hate. Thanks. Mary [REDACTED] I do this for GGrandfather [REDACTED], Pvt, Co9, artillery.

I wrote you a letter with my ODE to the BEAUREGARD BATTLE FLAG. I sent you a new letter today with an update and some photos!

Please take heart to item 5 on this new letter, as I overheard some things that both sides of the issue had remarked, while I was there yesterday!

One reason I am contacting you today, is because since you want to be a NAZICRAT/DICTATOR. WHY NOT GO ALL OUT! Some of the people demonstrating were not from South Carolina, and some had no ties to the Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy.(Also reported on CNN)

Instead of all the police officers standing around doing nothing, have them check for credentials, if they can't prove they are from S.C. or Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy, tell them goodbye, or get arrested! That is what a good NAZI/DICTATOR would do and to HELL WITH FREE SPEECH, and that is exactly what I would do, since some claimed, what they wanted to do to you!..In my letter I explained I was threatened by a demonstrator of the NEONAZI NAACP. What I did and could have done is all explained

The last issue I raised in my letter concerns July, 18th. Again, you want to be a good NAZICRAT/DICTATOR revoke those permits for the N.C. KKK and S.O.B.'s of the New Black Panthers, that is exactly what I would do, especially on a day of our downtown flea market! Both those groups come armed, and just telling them to stay away, is not enough...REVOKE THOSE PERMITS, and they will not be able to demonstrate period! YOU WANT TO BE A GOOD NAZICRAT, then do what I suggested, to avoid BLOODSHED, it could save your life and many innocent South Carolinians. If you are not from S.C. or part of any group of S.C., then stay the HELL OUT of our business! Period end of story! (The NAACP were going to protest in Ocala, Fl. one year back in the mid late 90's, and the city council told the leadership of the NAACP, they came anywhere near downtown or City Hall, they would all be arrested. Look it up it is part of Ocala's legacy against the NAACP!) If my former small town can stop a group such as the BIG BAD NEONAZI NAACP, then you should be able to pull the plug on the KKK, NBP, and demonstrators with no affiliation to S.C.!n Your a lady, but grow a pair, and protect the good citizens of Columbia and South Carolina. Don't let &quot;CARPETBAGGERS&quot; dictate our own states issues before somebody gets killed!

To quote your reply "For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past."

This tells me that you've chosen to ignore a significant portion of your population (and tens of thousands of others who celebrate free speech) and side with those who wrongly believe that removing an inanimate object will somehow remove hate from the heart.

I would refute your statements that South Carolina is united in this decision. What a joke. You clearly don't get out much.

Twice I have worked for your campaign and was very supportive. That ended when you made the confederate flag an issue. All this stuff was 100+ years ago and the issue was taken up a few years ago and came to an agreement. What is next... the American flag? The government already lets people step on, burn and destroy it. Being a veteran that hurts. You started a fire storm that was not needed.

Dear Staff,

I just wanted to drop a note and say that I applaud the Governess and her stand on the Confederate flag. I only hope that when it is removed it is done with dignity for the 260,000 Southern Americans that died in the conflict.

Below is a few lines I wrote about :

The War of the Rebellion IS over

Robert E. Lee stepped down off the porch and mounted his faithful companion (Traveler), and for a moment he gazed down at the valley where his Army of Northern Virginia (his boys) lay encamped. The mist in his eyes was thicker than the fog that rises in the Shenandoah Valley on a cool autumn morning. He tipped his hat to General Grant and with his aid he slowly departed. It was with the utmost respect for a great American General that the Union Soldiers lowered their caps. Not a cheer or word was spoken as Robert E. Lee passed. On April 9th 1865 General Robert E. Lee surrendered his men, his arms, his love, but he failed to surrender her colors.

In 2015 her colors will finally be surrendered and with respect for the 260,000 Southern American soldiers who died beneath her shadow I salute her as she is lowered.

THE WAR OF THE REBELLION IS FINALLY OVER!

Sincerely

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

On the evening of Wednesday, June 17, 2015, the world witnessed a senseless tragedy at Emanuel A.M.E. Church in our beloved Charleston, South Carolina.

Heartbroken, words fail us as we seek to make sense of this unexpected loss of life at one of our places of worship. We will never understand what motivates anyone to commit such a vile and hateful act, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and healing our state. The families' grace and strength set a powerful example for us all, and the response of the people of South Carolina helped us strengthen our love for each other.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We will continue to come together as a state, as a unified people, and never forget those we lost.

Michael, Rena, Nalin, and I join countless others all over the country in praying for strength during this time of healing and offering our condolences and support to the families affected. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

You can pay your respects by raising your gun laws to preserve the sanctity of human life. South Carolina's lack of reasonable, common sense gun laws are to blame for this senseless tragedy. These laws allowed a deranged young man to possess weapons for mass killings. Thankfully you've taken down the flag which has been a dark symbol of this country's original sin. Now please allow for the dialogue of how we can better protect those who are vulnerable to hate and those caught in the crossfire. Giving them free access to weapons only invites more tragedy. Haven't we had enough? Tragedy struck your community and you have seen it firsthand. Now is the time to act and to send a message to the rest of world that the lives of American citizens matter more than money or politics. Please don't tarnish the memories of these lovely individuals by speaking of more gun violence. No. We do not to fight violence with violence. That's called a gun fight and we have evolved since the days of the wild west. We are a civilized nation with laws. That is our strength. Gun proliferation, such as before WWI, brought humanity untold misery. Those who would carry guns should know the power that they wield and carry it for a higher purpose; not for some random chance that they may have to protect themselves. The body count is growing. Less than 2% of all gun related fatalities are for the purposes of self-defense. Suicides and murders are directly related to gun violence. We are not saving lives here. We are costing lives. I personally don't want or need a fire truck. Why is a glock 45. Caliber handgun any different? Show the world your strength and resolve. Yes, you can shoot a gun, but can you change the world. That's a harder and more challenging job.

Thank you for taking action.

Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to respond to my initial letter. I do appreciate it. I feel that I need to restate a few things however. first I have no vested interest in the Confederate flag having been born and raised in Philadelphia. I believe your decision, and that of the Senate, to lower the flag from the State House is the correct move. It needs to be moved and displayed in the State museum. To do otherwise, is attempting to alter history and that I do have a strong position on. What scares me are things like taking the Dukes of Hazard off the air, a show that I personally do not watch, and suggesting that Gone with the Wind be banned is moving towards censorship. The flag is a part of US history, as ugly as it may be, and history cannot be changed. Final thought, stores not selling the Confederate flag while selling the Nazi and ISSL flags is extremely offensive to me. I am not suggesting these be banned any more then I am the Confederate flag but we need to keep things in perspective. The tragedy in Charleston was the result of one individual who obviously had some personal problems. My heart goes out to all of the victims and their families but I do admire the response of all in Charleston and it makes me proud to be a South Carolina transplant.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

Governor Haley,

Thank you very much for your response. I do respect your opinion, but I also fear deeply that destruction of our history will not by any means stop with the removal of the Battle Flag from the Soldiers Memorial. Next would likely be a call to remove the entire memorial. Already, the park service has removed the Confederate Flags from Fort Sumter. Certainly, the flag has historical context there. Also, there seems to be a great rush to remove other historical monuments, rename streets, schools, and even a call to rename U.S. military bases. Again, my fear, and the fear of many of my Compatriots in the Sons of Confederate Veterans, is once these national treasures are erased, the revisionists will just keep on going without end until there is nothing left of a truly magnificent history. And, when a nation loses it's history, it loses it's soul.

Again, I thank you for the response, and I appreciate the difficult situation you face. I hope and pray that this is not the first step in erasing the history of one of the most defining times in the history of our nation.

Sincerely,

Claiborne W [REDACTED] Lt Col (Ret)

I believe the right to fly the Confederate flag belongs to everyone that wishes to do so. If all other flags can fly and that includes ISIS, then the Confederate Battle Flag should fly free as well. The south will not back down!!

If they cannot honour those of our citizens who died fighting for our state, then they should not have the PRIVILEGE of being in an office where they are supposed to be "for" the people. They have disrespected black, white, native, Hispanic and others who took up arms when asked to do so, who did their duty and gave the ultimate sacrifice. The people on this list have basically sprt on that for the sake of jumping on a political bandwagon. I am saddened at how they chose cowardice rather than honour, unlike those the flag represents. Amazes me how quickly they rush this through, yet SC has been named #1 state for child traffickers to run to, since the 1980s and yet they STILL won't even discuss stopping THAA.

These lawmakers acted out of emotion, not logic. They declared all of SC and the South as "guilty" of the Charleston tragedy and to remain loyal to the state of the Confederation. They should mourn for their loss instead of using them as their political pawns in a poor attempt to make themselves look "good" They gave the haters what they wanted -- to bully others -- rather than learning from the people of Charleston who acted out in love. I've lost my respect for these lawmakers

Governor Haley. I have followed you and your political career. I have always thought highly of you. Although it is only South Carolina's business about the flag at the state house the timing was terribly. you will go down in history as starting the horrific villainization of a piece of fabric which had been misappropriated by some sorry racist people. There are millions of South Carolinians, Southerners and other Americans who have been disenfranchised and are sorely hurt by the attacks on the Confederate Flag which now it is obvious that your actions started. If the snowball keeps rolling, offensive inanimate objects, of which I hold several in my thinking should also be eliminated from public viewing. I am sure you now realize that you were the starting signal of which you will go down in history as being.

I am sure that this will go into the trash and probably never read and I am sorry for that. Who knows where it will end and who it will alienate, it has alienated me and hurts deeply. I am sure there are citizens in Columbia remember how Sherman (the United States Army) treated Columbia and the descendents of Southern soldiers have just been treated worse.

 <MSG>

Sunday, June 28, 2015

Dear Governor Haley,

Just like most South Carolinians, I've heard your call for the Confederate Flag to be removed from the S.C. State House Grounds, as well as the same from many other individuals to include many who are not even residents of South Carolina. And honestly, I don't expect to hear from you in reply to this email however, I ask that you please read and consider every word. And I do hope I hear back from you.

Personally, I would prefer to see the Confederate Flag be moved back on top of the Capitol Building itself instead of being removed totally from the State House grounds but I will relax my personal feelings for a majority Vote from S.C. Voters on the issue.

To me, the Confederate Flag in an Honor given in remembrance & recognition of those Men who fought and some gave their own lives many years ago during the Confederate War, and for no other reason. Although many people have claimed, the Confederate Flag was never meant to, and has never served as anything to do with slavery.

Today, I specifically request that you would meet personally with our S.C. Legislators before they hold a Vote on this issue. I ask that you would please express to our Legislators just how important it would be to choose the correct and proper manner to settle this issue which would be to include the question of if the Confederate Flag should either remain or not remain on the State House grounds on the Voting Ballots across our Great State at our next General Election, to be held in November 2016. Let's allow the People of South Carolina to make this decision. Thank for your Service to South Carolina as our Governor.

Always Sincerely & Respectfully,

Colonel Charles E. [REDACTED]

Recipient: South Carolina Order of the Silver Crescent Award

 <SUBJECT>Confederate constitution March 11,1861.</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Read the Confederate constitutions, specifically the Permanent Constitution adopted March 11, 1861. It is modeled after the U.S. Constitution but has some glaring differences. Several deal with protecting slavery as an institution.

Those who argue that slavery wasn't at the heart of the Confederates' issues haven't read this document, which was designed to protect and expand slavery.

It stipulated that no law "denying or impairing the right of property in negro slaves shall be passed."

As to the expansion of slavery in new areas, "In all such territory, the institution of negro slavery, as it now exists in the Confederate States, shall be recognized and protected by Congress by the territorial government; and the inhabitants of the several Confederate States and Territories shall have the right to take to such territory any slaves lawfully held by them in any of the States or Territories."

Alexander H. Stephens, who served as vice president of the Confederate States during the Civil War, made a speech in Savannah, Ga., shortly after adoption of this constitution.

As to the institution of Negro slavery: "This was the immediate cause of the late rupture and the present revolution, " he said.

On the newly established Confederate government: "Its foundations are laid, its cornerstone rests upon the great truth, that the negro is not equal to the white man. That slavery - subordination to the superior race - is his normal condition, " said Stephens, a slave owner.

Weeks later, Robert H. Smith, one of the framers of the document, told an audience, "We have dissolved the late Union chiefly because of the negro quarrel.

Many Confederates didn't own slaves.Perhaps they were fighting to defend their homeland, or fighting for states' rights.

But I also believe none of them was fighting against the white supremacy that made black slavery an American institution for about 250 years.

That the Confederates wanted to preserve their lifestyle - their culture - on the backs of the black men, women and children who made such a lifestyle possible cannot be argued.

And it infuriates the descendants of those slaves when the government decides to honor these Confederate leaders, this Confederate heritage.

Think about it. It's an insult a racist act for government to sanction Confederate symbols.

"In Germany, it's illegal today to paint a swastika on a wall, " said Cheryl Johnson-Odim, head of the Liberal Education Department at Columbia College Chicago and an African-American historian.

Ron Walters, a professor of government and politics at the University of Maryland, agreed.

"A lot of modern apologists for the Confederacy want to pull the slavery aspect of it apart from the rest of it and pretend there is some sort of pristine Southern [culture] apart from the institution of slavery, which undergirded it, " he said.

Walters has no problem with Southerners who want to honor their ancestors as long as they do it privately.

"The reason, of course, is that the Confederacy was defeated. It would be like proclaiming Nazi Week. It was a defeated power, a racist power, and it was oppressive to black and Native Americans and others. As such it is a regimen that should not have a place of honor in this society."

There is little use for "Confederate Heritage, " said Michael J. Birkner, chairman of the Department of History at Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania.

"Huff and puff as much as they want, those [who] want to celebrate the Confederacy are celebrating a system that made chattel slavery its foundation, " Birkner said last week. "I know all the arguments about how most Confederate soldiers didn't own slaves and many were focused mainly on states' rights or, more likely, simply protecting their mates and their home turf. Perhaps people should simply celebrate the bravery of the common soldier.

"The Confederacy itself deserves to be dead and buried. It was a bad idea and a bad system."

Dear Governor Haley - I did not vote for you and am a solid Democrat - but I want to thank you for making me so proud to be a South Carolinian these past few days. In the aftermath of the tragic Charleston church shooting, our state needed a strong and compassionate leader - you were both of those things. The way you carried yourself and your response to this tragedy truly helped to heal our state. Your courage on the issue of the Confederate Battle Flag was amazing. I grew up in Easley, SC and was number six of seven children - my Dad died when I was eight years old - and my Mom literally worked herself to death to provide for us. It was no surprise to me that it took our first female Governor to come forward and make this courageous decision to move the flag to a museum - and just for the record, I am a 58 year old man. We disagree on so very many issues that I wanted to seize this opportunity to reach out in agreement and to again say "thank you". I look forward to the opportunity to reach out in agreement again before the end of your term. With great sincerity and respect and best wishes - Jimmy L [REDACTED]

First I would like to thank you for your public service to our wonderful state. The way you are handling the tragic events that have taken place in Charleston are commendable. I'm asking you to please hold your judgment on what to do about the Confederate Flag. The flag is not the issue. It is being targeted by liberal extremist that want to suppress the southern lifestyle of being independent. It is not slavery. Please let the people vote on this matter of where the flag should be. And if it is voted to come down then so be it. It really upsets me how cooperate/retail America is shunning the Flag. Don't be the Governor responsible for taking it down based on irrational behavior based on an extremely awful event. Let the people of South Carolina make that choice. After all we must be doing something right here or big corporations wouldn't be lining up to set up shop here. We have a lot to offer especially forgiveness and love.

Sincerely

Jeffrey M. [REDACTED]

There is no question that any acknowledgement that slavery was the blackest hour in the history of our country is welcome. However, for many of us, an equally important issue is that of federal aggression in pursuit of the diminishing of states rights. The removal of the confederate battle flag as the states rights issue rages in 2015 is not only an affront to a free American people but, also a victory to those who seek to stifle free enterprise and home rule control. If my study of history serves me well I understand that less than three percent of the southern populace owned slaves. And that among that three percent of slave owners some notable slave owners were black!

If you seek to take so drastic an action as to reduce the entire Confederate cause to one issue please display the intestinal fortitude to tell the entire story. I do not doubt the sincerity of your action to support my own outcry and anguish concerning the senseless murder of my 9 fellow Christians. Please don't let historical truth and the love of state sovereignty be the 10th casualty. Respectfully Rev. Samuel P [REDACTED]

There is a report in the Post and Courier that Fort Sumter has now removed all Historical Flags from Its grounds of the Confederacy. They are also reporting items are being removed from the gift shop. Is this true? I agreed that to remove the flag from our capital grounds was the right thing to do.....but to destroy and alter historical sites is Wrong. Have you all gone Insane? What are you going to do to address this issue and correct it? And please do not dodge this issue saying it is under Federal jurisdiction.

Again I ask what are you going to do to immediately correct this?

Sincerely,

Governor, Congrats on your announcement to remove the flag. You have been provided an historic opportunity to lead on this issue. but your place in history is waning with every day that passes and the flag still waves. The flag flew over Picnkney's funeral, not good. SC needs to see courage, the nation needs to see courage. Find a way. Your place in history awaits.
What will it be?

Dear Governor,

A governors duty to protect the intrest of her state whether internal issues or from the federal government, much as your stance on Obamacare. To protect the federal government from stripping the state of its rights, protecting her citizens from being forced to by a product to protecting the state economy and budget a law you had no problem fighting. Much as did the citizens, Senators, and govenor before in their efforts in fighting feared federal overreach and protection of S Carolinas economy in fighting the Tariff of Abominations in 1828. Which would lead to the Nullification Crisis that began in late 1832 such an issue would lead to Vp Calhoun resigning the Vice Presidency in order to run for the Senate where he could more effectively defend nullification. Those events are what would start the secesion prosess. The confederat flag is not a sign of racism. Lincoln himself ran on a platform even though an abolishenist said he wasnt going to touch the issue let alone there was union slave owning states so how could the flag be a racist symbol? Im very disappointed you trampled over the flag a symbol of those willing to fight government overreach.

Dear Gov. Haley, I have always admired and supported you as our Governor. However, as a descendant of two confederate soldiers who fought to defend their homes from northern armies, I am very disappointed in your decision to take down the flag. The flag had nothing to do with the horrible tragedy in Charleston, and it is so sad to see politicians cave in to liberals that resent the compromise that was reached years ago when the flag was moved from the capital dome to it's current location.

Please think about what you are doing, as trying to rewrite history to please everybody is wrong, and impossible.
Sincerely, A. M. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I wanted to commend you on your call to remove the Confederate flag from the capitol. This is an act of courage and conviction and must be heartening to your black constituents.

Watching politicians too often do the thing that won't rock the boat, makes me fear that we no longer have leaders, just people who want votes.

Your call to remove a symbol of racism, treason and division is the act of a true leader.

Sincerely,

M. Lisa [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, Please don't delay in taking down the Confederate Flag. I live in Texas. Honestly, I could not believe that flag was flying in 2015. I was very shocked to learn that. I thought the majority of racism was behind us since we have the first African-American president. I was very wrong. Take this symbol of division and hatred down. Honor the lives of the 9 African-American family that were murdered because of learning racism by these teaching symbol of hatred-the Confederate Flag. Act now. Don't let us forget this senseless act of hatred. Like President Obama said at the funeral, Amazing Grace. The family of the victims forgave the killer. They acted on a very high level morally. Please do the same and act on a high level morally and take the flag down. Sincerely, Karen [REDACTED]

Remove the Confederate Flag seems to be the hot topic here, and it has been stated that you seem to be willing to remove without pause - whether foreign born or not - you understand nationalism. The flag was used for War not as representation for hatred and slavery. If you knew history the republicans actually fought against slavery while the Democrats were pro Slavery and have manipulated African Americans ever since.

Please stand your ground and do not allow the media dictate your decisions. Or, allow one sick demented white kid who shot up a church to dictate history. Funny how no one reports the black on white crimes, well maybe they are deserved right all of us white folk continue to carryout racist thoughts and actions well at least per Obama, well we just don't say N****r. Your a Republican, a strong conservative woman/lady with a backbone so please done cave. I served multiple tours and now I am retiring from the Active Military and we need people to believe in, don't let us down. Please ma'am.

Well, I don't agree with any of you. The flag is only divisive because of the race baiters in this country. Most black people haven't even thought about this flag until the race baiters intervened. It is sick and it is unprofessional of the governor and the senators and representatives of this state to react in this manner. To give in to these awful people is unthinkable for our conservative people. We are from the South and we should be proud of that! Taking down that flag just means that we are giving in to the politically correct people in this country. All of you should be ashamed of yourselves!

Dear Governor Haley,
 Thanks so much for your kind and considerate response to my message.
 You and the people of South Carolina have our deepest sympathy and all good wishes as you go forward from this horrific event. I hope you can find some grandmothers who will help the people of South Carolina come together on this — no doubt in consultation with their grandchildren.

I Understand that the family members of those shoot and killed are heavy on everyone's minds, but this is a singled out incident which happens everyday of our lives and not just in America. The Rebel flag is an every day part of history and will be for as long as myself and others live. You may vote to remove the flag and again a small number of people will once again rule over the majority. Why does our nation continue to be ruled by just a few people who choose to pick on one issue at a time just to prove that the minority can rule over the majority.' You may vote to remove to the Rebel Flag but there will be others who will vote to restore it, and your representatives will be listed in history as the representatives that gave into a small number. I ask you to please not give into the special interest groups that wish to rule the rest of America. Please keep the Flag flying.

Dear rally [REDACTED] Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all. Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process. We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past. Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony. The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless. My very best, Nikki R. Dear non southerner,
 It was you politicians that raised the flag issue, not the congregation that lost loved ones. I am sick and tired of being white, being conservative because we are the only side that compromises. You elected officials are compromising us right out of existence. I have news for you, that flag also represents the brutal and painful past of the white and black population during Reconstruction of the carpet baggers. That is HISTORY.
 Goodby you politician Regina [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I think you are making a mistake letting your state reps make the decision on the disposition of the Confederate flag. You know they will cower into removing it fearing loss of their jobs. If it is up to the voters then a true vote can be made without fear of losing their jobs. I would have left it up to the state voters then the word would be final and without question.

Sincerely,

Sam [REDACTED]

Our Dearest Governor Haley,
Thank you kindly for your response. I certainly agree with your statements, in general. Please note however, history indicates black people, not white, brought slaves to our great nation. The Confederate Flag is a part of our American history. It should not invoke negativity any more than a camera invokes pornography. Has our mentality declined to this level. If so, we certainly deserve what we get. Although you are entitled to our opinions, please KNOW that we love you dearly, have the ultimate faith in you, and will support your decisions.
Respectfully,
Michael

Obviously you didn't read my e-mail. You caved and you and the MSM and all the politicians who called the shooter evil, monster, and psycho are cowards. I never heard any of you describe Blacks who murdered Whites or Muslim terrorists in the same manner. Murder is murder and shouldn't be dealt with depending on what religion or race the murderer/victim was. Look up the Christian/Newsome kidnappings, rapes, torture, and murders which didn't even make the news in Jan.2007. What a disgrace.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED] In the evening of Wednesday, June 17, 2015, the world witnessed a senseless tragedy at Emanuel A.M.E. Church in our beloved Charleston, South Carolina. Heartbroken, words fail us as we seek to make sense of this unexpected loss of life at one of our places of worship. We will never understand what motivates anyone to commit such a vile and hateful act, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and healing our state. The families' grace and strength set a powerful example for us all, and the response of the people of South Carolina helped us strengthen our love for each other. Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We will continue to come together as a state, as a unified people, and never forget those we lost. Michael, Rena, Nalin, and I join countless others all over the country in praying for strength during this time of healing and offering our condolences and support to the families affected. God bless. My very best, Nikki R. Haley NRH/ahp

Thank you, Governor Haley, for doing the right thing. May the legacy and symbols of white supremacy be put to rest so we can all look toward a safe and brighter future.
