Dear Ms. Storms,

Thank you for your correspondence regarding life issues. I certainly appreciate your sharing your concerns with me.

I am strongly pro-life, not because any political party tells me to be, but because my family reminds me every day of the blessings of life. My husband Michael was adopted and I am constantly thankful that someone chose life for him, and I am the proud mom of two children who bring me so much joy as I watch them grow. It is my hope that we will continue to encourage and work towards educating everyone to value the culture of life for all people.

Again, thank you for your correspondence. God bless.

My very best,
